Dear General Currie.

My big pictures have to find a temporary home before I return to England in May.

General Loomis suggested that perhaps General Macdonell at Kingston might allow them to go for a while to the college.

What do you think of this?
I've written to General Macdonell & would be so glad if you could be so kind as to write him a little note also.

Please forgive my troubling
you.
Yours sincerely
I. M. Gladstone
