

The requirements for the degree are as follows:-

(1) Candidates for this degree must hold a B.S.A. degree with at least second rank honours from McGill, or its equivalent.

(2) Candidates must take one year of resident graduate study at Macdonald College, Faculty of Agriculture, McGill University.

(3) One or two subjects may be taken.

(4) Candidates must select one major subject. A course of study in another subject may be selected with the consent and approval of the head of the department in which the major subject is taken, subject to the advice and agreement of the head of the other department. The candidate shall pass an examination in each of the subjects of his course.

(5) The course of study selected by the student must receive the approval, in writing, of the heads of the departments concerned, and also of the Divisional Committee concerned.

(6) The candidate shall also present a thesis on some topic connected with his major subject. The title of his thesis must have been previously submitted to the Divisional Committee concerned, and the head of the department concerned, and have received their approval in writing. The thesis must show a capacity for original research and must also be written in good literary style.

The thesis must be in the hands of the Dean of the Faculty of Graduate Studies and Research, on or before April 28th, if the candidate wishes to present himself for the degree at the Convocation in May. If the course involves laboratory work the thesis must be submitted before May 12th.

THE DEGREE OF MASTER OF COMMERCE (M.COM.).

This degree shall be granted upon the recommendation of the School of Commerce, and the requirements shall be substantially the same as those for the degree of Master of Arts.

REGULATIONS FOR THE DEGREE OF DOCTOR OF PHILOSOPHY (Ph.D.).

(1) Candidates for the degree of Doctor of Philosophy must hold the degree of B.A., with honours, or B.Sc., with honours, B.S.A., with honours; or M.D., with honours from McGill University, or its equivalent.

(2) They must follow a course of at least three years' resident study at a university or other institution of higher learning or research. Of these three years, at least one year for graduates of McGill, and two years for candidates who are not candidates of McGill, must be spent at this University, including preferably the final year. The other years may be spent at institutions approved by the Faculty. Special exceptions regarding resident study may be made with the consent of the proper Divisional Committee and the Faculty. The evaluation of work done in other institutions for the degree shall be decided by the proper committee of the Division of the Faculty, and this Committee may require the student to attend before them to report on his work, and may require him to pass a special examination on his work.

(3) They must select one major subject. A minor subject may be selected, with the consent and approval of the head of the department in which the major subject is, subject to the advice and agreement of the heads of both departments. The amount of work in the minor must receive the approval of the head of the minor department.
