

the Delaware tribe of Indians fifty years, at Moravian Town, in the County of Kent, and who was well acquainted with the language. Most of the Hymns have been translated by the late Charles Halfmoon, and a few of the Psalms by me; and I hope and pray that they may be made a great blessing to my Indian brethren.

As our white brethren occasionally worship with us, it is necessary that the Prayer Book and Hymn Book be printed in English on the opposite pages of these books.
