

CONTENTS.

vii

PAGE.		PAGE.
175	Ottawas,	251
177	Pontiac—Their Celebrated Chieftain and Orator,	252
178	Californians,	254
179	Creeks,	255
180	Cherokees,	256
s, &c. 181	Shawanees,	258
182	Tecumseh,	259
183	Red Jacket—His Eloquence and Character,	262
meri- 185	Indian Speeches,	267
187	Speech of Logan,	268
ren, 189	Speech of the Five Iroquois Chiefs,	269
190	Speech of Half King,	270
ib. 190	Speech of Petchenanalas,	271
191	Speech of Captain Pipe,	272
ib. 191	The Answer of Little Turtle,	274
ib. 192	Speech of Red Jacket to a Missionary,	275
ib. 192	Speech of Red Jacket about the Witch Doctrine,	278
192	Speech of Farmer's Brother,	279
ib. 193	Speech of Corn Planter,	280
195	Speech of Tecumseh,	282
196	Speech of Black Thunder,	283
ib. 196	Speech of Metea,	285
ib. 197	Speech of Keewatagoushkum,	287
197	Speech of Black Hawk,	289
ib. 197	Speech of the Onondagas and Cayugas,	291
can 199	Speech of Canagassiego,	295
215	Speech of Gachradodow,	299
225	Character of the Five Nations, by Colden,	301
227	America Peopled by a more Civilized Race than the present Red Indians,	307
228	Indian Antiquities, according to Governor Clinton,	314
229	The Mexicans are the Remains of a more Polished Nation than the North American Indians,	322
231	Conclusion,	340
232
233
234
240
242
243
245
247
248
ib. 248
250		