So Much for So Much

Tonight at the Alexandra Theatre will inaugurate the farewell week of the Robins Players and the ending of one of the most successful stock engagements ever played in Toronto when they will present for the first time in Toronto another first release for stock, 'So Much for So Much.' The piece is by Willard Mack, author of "Kick In," and was presented last season at H. H. Frazee's Longacre Theatre in New York City.

In "The Bird of Paradise," which will open the regular season at the Alexandra Theatre next week, Richard Walton Tully, the author, presents an alluring picture of a vanished regime in a beautiful land.

Commencing with a matinee today, Shea's Theatre will open its doors for the season of 1915-16. Headlining an all-star bill for the initial week are Doyle and Dixon. Both men are clever dancers who introduce popular songs in their offering. Mile. Natalie and her talented dancing partner, M. Ferrari, will present a series of classical and modern dances. The special extra attraction of the bill, Marlowe, chooses to veil his act in mystery. In "Arbitrating Liz," Julia Nash and a clever company offer a vehicle that is said to contain many witty lines, while Kolb and Harland have a pretty little sketch. McCormick and Wallace will present an up-to-date monolog.
"The Skating Bijouves." Ramalo and Vilan, and film attractions complete a splendid bill.
