

this view, that if the fate of arms in Europe should ever oblige us to bend and to receive the law, you may make use of them in such manner as the love of your country shall direct you.

I have the honour to be,

My dear cousin,

Camp before
Quebec,
Aug. 24, 1759.

Your most humble, &c.

MONTCALM.

F I N I S.