

women for ideal citizenship here and hereafter. May we while here be wise in the devising of ways and means, and the suggesting of motives for better and fuller work. Let brotherly love bind us together, and Fatherly love harmonize us, thus realizing the Fatherhood of God and the Brotherhood of man.

"Live while you live, the Epicure would say,
And seize the pleasure of the present day ;
Live while you live, the sacred Preacher cries,
And give to God each moment as it flies ;
Lord, in my views let both united be ;
I live in pleasure when I live in Thee."

Rev. W. FRIZZELL moved the following resolutions, which were seconded by H. F. Moore, and adopted :

1. That the President nominate a committee of fifteen, who shall nominate a Business Committee of twenty-five members, a Committee on Resolutions of nine members, a Committee on Registration of five members, and make such other nominations as may be referred to them by the Convention.

2. The Business Committee shall report to the Convention any changes that may be found necessary in the programme. It shall nominate a President, Vice-President, two Minute Secretaries, a General Executive and a Central Executive for the coming year, and attend to such other matters as may be referred to it by the Convention.

3. That the following rules be adopted for the transaction of business at this Convention :

(a) The schedule time of the programme shall be strictly adhered to. If any item is not completed when the time for some other item is reached, the latter shall be taken up. The Business Committee shall arrange a time for the disposition of any unfinished business.

(b) All resolutions offered shall be in writing. When a motion is moved and seconded, it shall be referred without discussion to an appropriate committee.

(c) No delegate shall speak more than once on any question, nor more than five minutes at a time, without the leave of the Convention, which shall be granted or refused without debate.
