

never imported into the country, will stand for Kares
season as follows:

ple (Mr. Mark Barney's), Lot 23, Con. 3, Delaware, and and remain over night.

r's Hotel, Komoka, for noon; thence to Delaware, and to his own stable, and remain over night.

Weyler's, Lot 11, Con. 2, for noon; thence to Thomas

Piper's, Lot 6 A, Con. 5, Westminster, for noon; thence llaw's, Lot 11, Con. 4, Westminster, for noon; thence to ewiller's, North Street, for noon; thence return to his Monday morning.

hout the Season, Health and Weather permitting.

AND PEDIGREE.

apped bay, of splendid action and good bone and muscle, and although s old, is over 16 hands in height. He was sired by Old French Hero, d 6 second-class prizes at the different shows in France. The dam of which was undoubtedly the most valuable breed of horses for general rly allied to the primitive Arab that they inherit from him many of his nce, symmetry of form, and graceful action, being compact and easily petent judges to be an improvement on the Norman, being more closely

TERMS.

Season mares, $8, payable the last round. Single leap, $5, to be paid regularly to the horse, or they will be charged as seasonmares. Persons or the season. Persons disposing of their mares before foaling will be sk of the owner. Groom's Fee, 50 cents, to be paid at time of service.

JOSEPH JORDAN, Proprietor and Groom.

(Advocate Steam Job Presses, Mitchell.)

