

	FACING PAGE
" 'Aren't there any beds save mine between here and the South?' "	71
"I realized that my position was not an enviable one"	78
" 'Certainly,' I replied, 'certainly, little bell boy, and perhaps you might like the funny trousers also?'"	81
" 'Bell boy, you're not saying it right'"	90
"Mr. Fogerty is a papa. He has seven babies, all dogs"	93
" 'Maiden, I have here with me a homeless cat' "	100
"The left shoulder of the young lady gave a slight, but ever so eloquent hitch"	103
" 'Say, don't you think that my horse looks sick?' "	106
" 'Let's swap horses,' I cried, as I passed her comparatively mild-mannered mount"	109
"Sailors have an unpleasant habit of glaring"	112
"At first I thought that he was getting into communication with my great grandfather"	115
" 'Good-bye, Fogerty,' says I, 'be good to your families' "	116
"Now I must hasten to sow some jazz-weeds"	119