

Baseball Again 13 Innings

CRAVATH'S WILLOW DEFEATS GIANTS

Two Doubles and Two Singles for Philadelphia Star—Reds Victors.

At Chicago (National League)—A second-inning batting rally, combined with errors, enabled the Chicago Nationals to win from Pittsburgh yesterday, 5 to 3. Jim Vaughn pitched steady ball for the Cubs, and Cooper was strong in all except the second inning. Eight thousand persons saw the opening. Score: R.H.E. Pittsburgh.....0 0 0 1 0 0 0—1 6 3 Chicago.....0 5 0 0 0 0 0—3 3 2 Batteries—Cooper and Schmidt; Vaughn and Killifer.

At Cincinnati—Ray Fisher, formerly of the New York Americans, pitched brilliantly for Cincinnati yesterday, and the local team won the second game of the season, 3 to 1. Sherdel, who was defeated in the opening game Wednesday, did much better work yesterday. In the third inning, with Heathcote on first, Hornsby hit over Roush, apparently, for three bases, but Heathcote, thinking the ball might be caught, turned and ran back to first base. Hornsby passed him on the line and was declared out for so doing. Score: R.H.E. Cincinnati.....10 0 0 0 0 0 0—1 8 2 St. Louis.....0 0 0 0 0 0 0—3 6 0 Batteries—Sherdel and Clemens; Fisher and Nariden.

At Philadelphia—Woodward, a recruit pitcher, stopped New York's scoring yesterday after Oeschger had given them a 5-to-2 lead at the end of the fourth inning, and Philadelphia, chiefly thru the batting of Cravath, won the game, 8 to 5. A wild throw by Jones helped them tie the score in the fifth, and after Cravath drove in the winning run, errors by Young and Chase prevented the locals from their last two rallies. Cravath had two doubles, two singles and a base on balls in five trips to the plate. The local club announced the purchase of Second Baseman Raymond from the Rochester team of the International League. Score: R.H.E. New York.....0 1 1 3 0 0 0—3 11 5 Philadelphia.....2 0 0 2 3 0 0—8 12 3 Batteries—Woodward, Jones, Steele and Smith; Oeschger, Woodward and Cady.

Brooklyn at Boston—Rain.

Senators' First Game In Major Leagues

(Copyrighted, 1919, by Al Munro Elias.) The Washington Club joined the American League in 1901, the second year of league's existence. Jimmy Manning was the club's first president and manager. In this, their first season, the team won 61 and lost 72 games, finishing sixth with a percentage of .459. The club hit 374 and fielded for .825.

An odd feature of the following score is that this was the only game in which the local team took part in the second year of league's existence. The Washington Club joined the American League in 1901, the second year of league's existence. Jimmy Manning was the club's first president and manager. ## Wintry Blasts Stop Leafs' Work-Out

Yesterday's wintry blasts stopped the preparatory work of George Gibson's Leafs. The brave band journeyed across the rough bay in the morning, but found a gale blowing across the field, and work was out of the question. Back they went to the hotel, and Manager Mooney Gibson gave them a chalk talk.

The probe for today are cold, but the Leafs will attempt to get in a workout and share their game with the Buffalo colored team.

Senators' Turn to Win Overtime Game

At St. Louis (American League)—Chicago's concentrated attack in the third inning consisted of three singles, a pass, a stolen base, Jackson's double and an error by Williams, which produced four runs, and the White Sox the second game of the series with St. Louis, 5 to 2. Score: R.H.E. Chicago.....0 0 4 0 1 0 0 0—5 10 1 St. Louis.....2 0 0 0 0 0 0 0—2 6 1 Batteries—Cicotte and Schalk; Sothorn and Mayer.

At Washington—Philadelphia turned the tables on Washington here yesterday in another thirteen-innings game, winning by a score of 6 to 5. The deciding run was made on Parkins' double. Anderson's sacrifice and Shannon's single. Harper pitched faultless ball for Washington until the sixth inning, when he was relieved by Craft. Score: R.H.E. Philadelphia.....0 0 0 1 0 0 0—6 14 2 Washington.....1 0 0 0 0 0 1—5 9 2 Batteries—Watson, Anderson and Parkins; Thompson, Harper, Craft and Garrity.

At Detroit—Detroit v. Cleveland, postponed; cold weather.

At New York—New York v. Boston, postponed; wet grounds.

AMATEUR BASEBALL

The Toronto Senior League will open its season on Saturday, May 17. St. Andrews and Judeans will stage the opener, with Parkdale and G.W.V.A. meeting in the second game. At the meeting of the league held on Tuesday evening the St. Marys Club announced its withdrawal from the league for the coming season. The management announced its inability to gear a team strong enough to compete with the other clubs. However, this has caused consternation in the ranks of the members of the popular west end club, and it should not be surprising if, at the next meeting of the league, the St. Marys' Colts are again in the fold. Judging from the players already lined up with the different clubs, the fans of St. Marys are in for the best season in history. The players already registered with the league secretary are: Parkdale—Chas. Norcott, W. Houlahan, Chas. Leverty, S. Adams, Leo Shannon, Geo. Bickel,
