CHARGE CHINKS WITH PERJURY

Three Swear That Three Neglected Truth in Witness-Box.

Three celestial witnesses came into the hands of the police yesterday in answer to a warrant charging them with perjury.

The offence is alleged to have been committed while the trio were giving evidence against their countrymen, Hing Ye, Chong Hing and Ho Yen, 105 West Queen-street, charged with keeping a gaming house.

The complainants declare that they were approached by Lem Quon, who asked $50 per month in exchange for immunity from legal prosecution, and upon refusal instituted illegal persecution.

GRAND STAND SHOW IS FULL OF VARIETY

Eight Thousand People Saw the First of the Afternoon Performances.

The performance in front of the grand stand in the afternoon was witnessed by eight thousand persons. The spectacles provided were novel and interesting enough to satisfy the most exacting critic. There were tricks which provoked uproarious merriment by their grotesqueness and humor, acts exciting wonder at the skill, agility and athleticism displayed in their performance, in fact a program original of pleasurable interest to all and a credit to the management which has secured the most up-to-date entertainment for all visitors to the grand stand.

The whole concourse of spectators, but especially the juvenile portion, was enthusiastically interested in the performance of Thomson's elephants. There were four of these huge animals on the stage and they displayed an intelligence almost human in their several acts. At the word of command they drilled with military precision, exercised in the most varied football or formed a living elephantine bridge. Sawing and splitting wood and making up the kitchen fire or doing the household work were easy matters to these clever animals, while they provoked roars of laughter in their harbor about them.

The performers again displayed most human predilections by showing great reluctance to deliver up a bottle, apparently containing a dose of "jerk," the grand finale of the elephantine acts was a somersault turned by one of the performers in a manner that was at least ingenious, if not graceful.

The "laughter that makes fat" was provided in abundant measure by clowning, contortionists and tricksters galore. There was the Gaudier Pantomime Troupe in their Humpty-Dumpty spectacle, which, judged from the applause, has not yet lost favor through age. Palaro Bros., absurdly nonsensical tricks in their turn at the mill act divided attention with the Lorne Troupe acts at their "Merry Moments of Mimus" trick house and roars of laughter greeted the original, bright and humorous.

Much favor was shown Mlle. Marguerite and the Cottrell Powell Troupe in their equestrian acts. The actions of the horses were revelations of the high degree to which training can educate the equine intelligence, while the fair equestrienne displayed a skill, endurance and originality that seemed to verge on the impossible.

The bicycle tricks were particularly good. The feats performed by the riders were novel, difficult and always interesting enough to call forth encomiums from the grand stand.

The performers rode single wheels, sitting and standing, performed dances on them, and in the grand stand, the former of other wonder and mirth-provoking tricks of equilibrium.

And there were plenty of other attractions on the program to fill up the time pleasantly. The Mansmith Duo made "ladders walk"; Mlle. Zingarella ascended a ladder, while the plankway of forbidding elevation on a round ball and performed certain fancy movements on route; the main sky-rocketing looped the loop and the roller skating act tickled and astonished all by its lightness and original humor.

The greasy and depressing state of the weather, those who attended the grand stand performance were treated to a feast of general satisfaction that will doubtless attract them back again.

PRETTY TOURIST HURT.

Miss Pearl Cooke Fractures Ankle Alighting From a Street Car.

Miss Pearl Cooke, a pretty American tourist from Cook's Springs, Ala., slipped in stepping from a southbound street car at King and Yonge-streets at 5.50 o'clock yesterday afternoon. The pavement was wet and she fell severely fracturing her ankle. She was removed to St. Michael's hospital.

Miss Cooke is a party of twenty-eight young southern women who escorted by Miss Alexander are visiting the larger cities of the United States and Canada. The party is at the Alhambra. Miss Cooke will not be able to move for weeks. Her relatives have been notified.

Ancient Temperance Meeting House Destroyed by Fire.

Four horses were taken from a burning stable in rear 326 and 328 East Queen-street at 11.15 o'clock yesterday morning. The building is owned and occupied by John O'Neil of the New Method Laundry.

The damage was about $800 and is covered by insurance. It is thought that the blaze was caused by someone smoking in the hayloft.

This stable was originally the meeting place of the early temperance workers of the city and was one of the city's landmarks.

HARVESTING HARVESTERS.

Detective Twigg Gathers Good Grain in Westbound Crows.

Detective Twigg was harvesting in the crowd entraining on the harvesters' excursion at the union station yesterday afternoon. He landed four alleged thieves out of the hundreds that thronged the platform and packed the cars.

As the bunch went thru the gate the sleuth fastened his eye on Albert Craes, while driver for S. Price & Sons from whom he is charged with stealing $22.76. It is said that he collected the money but made no return.

Escortng his man to headquarters, Twigg returned to look for a trio wanted at Montreal July 8, showing that he had served as a Jewish cook upon that vessel. He claims Glasgow as his birthplace. He has several reports of his efforts have been received from partially hooked "fakes".

Merely as an earnest of good faith of course the aspirant was asked to deposit $250.

Alexandria Egypt was the earthly paradise to which Abraham Callender was to send his dupes. He admits that the proposition might be spelled "fake".

Among his effects in addition to the thirty cents was a reply to his congratulation of the King upon being 60 years of age, and the polite refusal of Lord Knollys to allow the use of large amounts appreciated. Make cheques payable to Messrs. Marshall, already acknowledged $520. From Regina, Sask. $100. G. T. Irving $500. $525

FREE TO MEN UNTIL CURED.

With good, vigorous health every thing is possible—wealth, happiness, success. Without it there is only failure. Electricity furnishes all that goes to build up a strong, hale, confident, successful man—iron for the blood, vim and fire for the nerves and brain strength for the muscles, good digestion. It does all that medicines do, as well as what they fail to do. In my forty years' success I have proven this by the thousands of wrecks I have restored after other treatments failed. To convince every sufferer from debility, varicose, loss of power, rheumatism, lame back, etc., I give my famous Electric Belt absolutely

Free Until Cured. not asking a penny in advance or on deposit. You only pay price of belt when cured, and in many cases as low as $5, or for cash, full wholesale discount. Forty years' continuous success has brought forth many imitators. Beware of them. You can try the original, the standard of the world, free until cured, then pay for it. "The Seal of Certainty is good enough for me, says Mr. Cummings."

Good-by to the common shoe at 117 Yonge St.

I want my patrons, like myself, to feel that when they secure a pair of boots from us, the seal of certainty is written all over them; that while the little Slater stamp covers but a small space, that guarantee of quality and reliability and all that goes to create confidence and good will goes with every sale at our store—hence the common shoe must go.

Many of the shoes being sacrificed by us are good shoes, as common shoes go, but, side by side with Slater's, they are at a great disadvantage. Out they go—every sale a loss to us in money—and yet we each divide a mutual benefit.

This is no clearing of "junk," but nice, clean, new goods, at factory cost and lower.

The list is necessarily very incomplete, but we promise no such bargains are being offered elsewhere.
