GETS 30 GALLONS OF WINE IN MONTH

Therefore the Police Suspect Frank Tati of Selling.

DEFENDANT IS MISSING

In a few minutes the constable re-rned to state that Mr. Tati's palatial sidence was locked up tight as a surch on week days, and that there ong, long time.

It seems that Tati has been geting in wine in large quantities. During the month of February he received gallons from St. Catharines. This passed through the hands of expres Friday last he received 5 gallons, and when Inspector Robert Birrell and E. Keenleyside of the license department, arrived a few hours later and discovered but 2-quart bottles, Tati guilelessly explained that he and his quor. This didn't satisfy the officers shannon, C.M.G., G.O.C., M. D. No. 1. f the law, and a summons was issued or Tati for this morning. The police re hoping to nab the alleged wine libilar a warrant having been said.

Calvin Smith again bobbed up in ourt. This time he was fined $10 and osts for ill-treating a horse.
