Montreal, Aug. 9,—Another fall in prices occurred this morning in the early trading on the stock exchange. There was no session of the exchange on Saturday, but Spanish River preferred, which closed at 13½ on Friday, fell to 101, and Spanish common from 108 to 102. Laurentide fell to 101 from the closing price on Friday of 106%. Abitibi fell from 70½ to 67, and Breweries from 61% to 55½.

After the first sharp decline the market staged a rally, but gains were again swept away by a downward movement which set in near the noon hour. Atlantic Sugar, which has been a feature of considerable strength, fell to 127½, registering a loss of 7½ points since the close last week. Practically the whole of the list was lower.
