NOTE AND COMMENT

C. Donald's Spate (6), by The Rush-Cromwell, carrying 100 lbs., created an English record for a world's record for 11-2 miles by winning the Summer Cup at Newbury on June 26 in 1 min. 29 sec. He thus disposed of Althorp, who had held the record since 1906, when he won the Manchester Cup in 1 min. 30 sec. That time displaced the 2 min. 30-5 sec. set up by Roseburn at Doncaster in the spring of 1904.

On the same day in the Royal Stakes of 1500 sovereigns, Signoretta, the Derby winner, ran outside the money. White Eagle first, Mercur second and Lonsdale third.

Some people call them a gang of cranks who spend their spare time in endeavors to legislate away the drink evil. When successful it would surely be only a curtailment of British liberty. Instead they might with benefit to humanity endeavor to have it made a crime to get into a rowboat or any frail craft without being able to swim.

Lon Scholes and the Argonauts are putting in their final licks at home these days. They leave for London on Thursday, sailing from Quebec on Friday next. Speaking of the prospects, Mr. Scholes stated that he is seconds faster than when he won the Diamond Stakes, and that the Argonauts might have even a better chance than himself. The latter trained perfectly and contrary to some reports, were always worked carefully, with never any signs of going stale. Only eight men and the coxswain will go, the rest, Jackies and Toms, being ready to act as spares.

In the case of Longboat and his crew, it appears to be a case of on-again and off-again, the latest, according to the cable, being that Longboat is likely to protest, and that the English committee will listen. The Yankees threaten to withdraw should the Indians run with the boat in the correct proceeding. Should Longboat's entry be refused there is only one course for the Canadians, and that is to withdraw in a body.

Speaking of international athletics, Sweden has made wonderful progress for a country new to athletic sports. How seriously the people there are taking things is shown by their earnestness to learn what other nations can teach. They have had someone learning English methods, and they had a Swede in the States for five months learning Yankee methods. He will write a report on the subject for the Swedish Government, and the result will be beneficial from the Swedish point of view.

Fred Mitchell's work of yesterday puts him in the charmed circle of English twirlers who are getting too much credit as it was only Montreal.

Looks as if Toronto had struck a long winning streak, and it is safe to predict that by the time the Eastern League race, after to-day and to-morrow with the Sea-Scoops they come home till Aug. 1, they will be 17 and 18 in Rochester, Montreal, Buffalo, Newark, Providence and Jersey City each come to the island for three days.

Charlie Queerly says that on account of the peculiar ground conditions in Cornwall the Tecumsehs will be 2 to 1 in the better part of the Saturday, with lots of Hamilton's Point money in evidence, because he thinks the Indians are a good even money chance.

A valued correspondent who keeps in close touch with Canadian lacrosse, writes:

After every visit to Toronto of Mr. Foran, a member of the Olympic committee, we hear reports of his efforts to get a position on the lacrosse team to represent Canada at the Olympic games. Now, we are all interested in sending the best team that can be gathered together, I am sure you will agree with me in the case has supplied the best man that can be got for the positions named, and if the C. L. A. are asked to name some men, let us be sure the year the best lacrosse players not known with the strongest pull, as I have heard of some names being sent in to the committee of players retired, and who had to retire because of age, from the game, also still in club as managers and hangers-on. Such men already are with a few fit in with those chosen from the east; also good fellows in any social gathering. You published the names of Buddy Arnes of Oshawa, Bruce McIntire of Toronto; Will Kearns of Orangeville; Charlie Gilbert of West Toronto; Angus Campbell of Newmarket; and the young men, who are playing the game to-day, who are a credit to the C. L. A. and who, I am sure, will give a good account of themselves on the field, providing they are given the chance to try for the team that they should get.

W. H. Garrett, the energetic secretary and captain of St. Albans Cricket Club, writes: It would be the game immensely at Schomberg if made of the clubs in Toronto would arrange to play games there. The club is a good going concern, both this year to languish for want of fixtures; a team from Schomberg has played a week's cricket in Toronto on several occasions. The village is easily reached, and visitors can count on having a good day's sport and being royally entertained. Great interest is always taken in the games there, the cricket club being the only sporting organization in the village. Surely with the many hundreds of players in Toronto, teams could be raised to give Schomberg a game. Club secretaries with open dates would do well to correspond with Mr. Hallowell, Traders' Bank, Schomberg. He can probably give them a fixture any day they want it.

Either wickets are not as good as they were, bowlers are bowling better, or batsmen are not batting so well in first-class cricket, this year in England. Already there are within a few days of July, yet no individual batsman has scored 1000 runs.
