SATURDAY MORNING, SEPT. 8.

A Symbol of Our National Life.

On this last day of the great fair those who have not yet seen the wonderful display should make a special effort to get in touch with what is actually a very marvellous demonstration of the resources and might of Canada. It matters little to the fair whether there be a few hundreds over or under the million mark in attendance, but it matters very much to the people of the country and of this city in particular that they should know what manner of land they live in, what its aims and objects are, what it stands for in the world, how it serves its neighbors, and what is its special function in the company of the nations. All this and a good deal more may be understood in some fashion and as profoundly as the capacity of the observer permits from the magnificent display of the products of field and orchard, mine and river, factory and workshop that are assembled in Exhibition Park.

Major Church's Letter.

Major Church's letter to the senate may not be the wisest epistle in the world, but it goes to the root of the matter and raises the issue. Parliament, he says, was acting ultra vires when it gave to a corporation the privilege of entering a city's streets to themselves the right to do. When parliament endows a corporation with rights which the King could not claim it is going beyond its power in attempting to transfer from the King who does not possess them, to a corporation, the privileges which it covets to possess. The people themselves cannot contract themselves out of the inalienable rights of citizenship, and these municipal privileges which corporations have intruded to obtain are not justly theirs, nor can they be alienated from the people by any ultra vires acts of their representatives. Mayor Church may not be quite technically correct in his assertions and intimations, but he has the spirit of the law of the land in his letter, and the heart of the people is with him in such downright speech. The senate will do well to consult the people on this matter and right the wrong.

BRITISH TROOPS FIGHT EVER LIKE BULLDOGS

Canadian Soldier Condemns Ig... of English Deeds.
London, Sept. 7.—"I am a real Canadian," said a Dominion soldier, "but I am getting sick of hearing Canadians praised to death while the English troops get little said about them. I reckon we don't fight better than the English. It is the fault of themselves that they do not get advertised. They never get spotted up like the Canadians who know that when on the big scene English troops play the same way all the time—like terriers, bulldogs. The English people are taken with the idea of the Canadians coming a long way to fight, but they do not see the romance under their own noses."

A DELIGHTFUL SEPTEMBER WATER TRIP.

Seldom is this glorious trip offered at the exceedingly low price of $45.00, Toronto to Saguenay River and return, including meals and berth. Passengers may leave Lewiston on the 8th, 9th or 10th, taking the steamer Toronto or Kingston, at Toronto, and connecting at Montreal with steamer Saguenay, sailing on the 11th. Prices for Ontario Grain

The World got quite a lot of information yesterday about the price of fall wheat; and the net result of our one-day discussion is that while fall wheat was bought within twenty miles of Toronto on Thursday buyers yesterday all over the province paid $2.15 a bushel and they will probably have to pay $2.20 for it at the beginning of the week. Publicity in prices must occur, said Mr. Omand, with reference to the cases reported in The World, where $2 was offered for new fall wheat, for not only the quality of wheat in question was a governing factor, but also the distance it would have to be hauled entered into the transaction. In his opinion, that there was any united action on the part of local buyers, Mr. Omand thought that it was out of the question, on the grounds that there existed too much competition between the buyers to permit of any pooling of interests.

Another grain broker, C. E. Nourse, stated to The World that in his opinion, as high as $2.25 for their new wheat, but such cases were exceptional. The average price received by the grain growers, in his experience, so far this year, was from $2.15 to $2.20 per bushel. When compared to the prices which were being paid for western wheat in Winnipeg, some Ontario wheat, he said, might have been sold lower than the average set by him, because of the fact that grain buyers were exhibiting a great deal of caution in making purchases on account of the uncertainty of the market. Mr. Nourse expressed the opinion that if any price-fixing were to be based on the price of bread could be fixed, and the price to the farmer for his wheat would automatically adjust itself to the new conditions.

As to a pool, Mr. Nourse pleaded ignorance. Some of the farmers thought that the minister of agriculture and the commissioner of agriculture, Dr. Creelman, should take a hand in the discussion and settlement of the question.

Several local grain men, when seen by The World yesterday with reference to the effort to discover whether they were in a central pool, said they were not. Some of the farmers thought that the minister of agriculture and the commissioner of agriculture, Dr. Creelman, should take a hand in the discussion and settlement of the question.

Tribute to Gen. Currie
Civilian Before the War, Now Commands Four Divisions of Veterans.
Canadian Associated Press Cable.
London, Sept. 7.—Sir George Perley, who has just returned after a week in France, made the following statement to the Canadian Press today: "I spent two days with the Canadian corps, and was greatly pleased to find that an atmosphere of cheerfulness and optimism pervades all ranks. The appointment of a Canadian to command the corps was most popular, and it is evident that all are working well together. The success of the arrangements made in England to train our men well and send reinforcements promptly is thoroughly realized and appreciated by the Canadian corps. All Canadian troops are members of one great organization whose first duty is to keep up the strength of our divisions in France. All those on this side of the Atlantic are parts of one great whole, the overseas military forces of Canada."
