FOR VERDUN REFUGEES

Citizens Are Asked to Give Liberally in Support of Brave People.

No ordinary tag day is today's "Flag Day." No, nothing ordinary, but something away beyond anything yet attained, is the hope of the projectors of the work in progress today in aid of the Verdun refugees. Already idings are very encouraging. From al of the province and many parts of the Dominion cheering messages and substantial testimony of the sympathy the movement has evoked, are Individuals and societies are work ing everywhere. Many of the Daught ers of the Empire chapters, different branches of the Women's Patriotic League and women everywhere are interested. The Women's Patriotic League of Windsor, have sent $125; Geo. Gooderham $500; Sir John Eaton $1,000. Little children on Geoffrey street held a bazaar and sent in $4.32.

All young and old are interested. Interest from northern Ontario is conspicuous and generous donations have been received from men prominent in the mines. The women of the Robins Players are assisting today and the company are giving two boxes, to be drawn for every day this week. Proceeds to go to Secours National. The National Cash Register Co. have gratuitously installed fourteen cash registers for use during the campaign.
It is felt that Toronto citizens are going to be more than kind to the women and girls, who today are wearing the tricolor and who will appeal to them to aid the suffering refugees of beautiful, brave France, whose me and women have played so grand a part in the world's greatest struggle.
