The Man In The Street

Cheer up! Summer will be here in a few months.

Then you won't have to worry because those new cars are cold.

During this little spell of weather ten minutes physical exercise in the new cars on your way to work in the morning, "skin-the-cat" and other feats, with the aid of the straps for instance, would warm you up some.

If the price of flour goes much higher we'll be saving the barrel hoops as souvenirs.

Familiar quotation—"He was the recipient of a wrist watch."

William Shakespeare was England's foremost writer; Germany had Emmanuel Kant. Now with a little rearrangement you see the English Will and the German Kant.

The department of agriculture intimates that Canadians should raise more wheat while the Europeans are devoting themselves to raising Hades.

News head said "Fresh Troops Annihilated"; that is what they get for getting fresh.

To West St. John people the defeat of the Thistle curlers by the Carleton club yesterday was recognized as vastly more important than the Russian victory in the east.

Judging the criticism his campaign has evoked, some of the Philadelphia clergymen seem to regard Evangelist Billy Sunday as one of those nut Sundaes.

One of the pleasant features of the wrangle across the border about the literary test for immigrants is that those most interested cannot write long letters to the papers about it.

Man in the street suggests another method of raising money for the patriotic funds. His idea is to charge an admission fee to allow the public to see the heavyweights of the police department doing their daily physical exercises.

The military training for the cops is a good idea though; some of them could swap their chest and waist measurements with advantage.

Will the chief's campaign against those who profess to pry into the future affect the daily weather forecast?

The man in the street says he would just as soon pay $10 taxes on his income as $20 extra on his rent.

CITY WOULD SELL.

The holders of the leases of the houses on city lands in Lancasters whose leases are expiring are being given an opportunity to purchase the properties if they wish to do so and are willing to pay a reasonable figure. The city is not unduly anxious to unload but the commissioner in charge regards it as good policy to allow the occupants to become owners of the properties if they wish to do so.

CREDITORS' MEETING.

At a meeting of the creditors of William Lilley & Sons, yesterday afternoon in the office of J. A. Sinclair, the appointment of John Kennedy as assignee was confirmed and J. G. Willett and W. G. Estabrooks were appointed inspectors. The assignee reported that he had an offer of $1,000 cash for the stock-in-trade, plant, fixtures, etc. This was about fifty per cent of the valuation placed on these assets and the assignee was instructed to accept the offer. The name of the purchaser was not revealed.

BUSY SESSION OF PROBATE COURT

J.W. Kierstead's Insurance Policies—Matter of Several Other Estates

In the probate court here, the matter of the estate of Mrs. Florence Annie Kierstead, late of Grand View, P. E. I., was taken up. She was the wife of Jacob Whitfield Kierstead, since deceased, who, at the time of his death, was domiciled in Hampton, N. B., but at the time of his wife's death they had their domicile in St. John, N. B. She died in December, 1898. There were two policies of insurance on her father's life for $10,000, payable to her but with reversion to her husband. Subsequently her husband married again and he made the policies payable to his second wife. The company now requires a release from the first wife's estate. She died without issue, and whatever interest she had in the two policies then went to the husband, Alvah Hovey Chipman, of Hampton, broker, having been appointed one of the administrators of Jacob Whitfield Kierstead's estate, on his petition he was appointed administrator. The value of the husband's interest in such policy is technical only, and is placed at the nominal value of $100. Horace Parer is proctor.

The court also took up the matter of the estate of Miss Jessie Fraser, late of Gardiner's Creek, Simons. She died intestate, leaving no next of kin within this province, George C. Forbes of Gardiner's Creek, farmer and William J. Forbes, of East St. John, grocer. Besides these two, she left William Forbes of Boston, and the children of Peter Forbes, a consular official, whose addresses are unknown. On the petition of the two next of kin resident within this province, John A. Sinclair, barrister-at-law, was appointed administrator. There was no real estate; personally $1,168 in the Savings Bank. Kenneth J. MacRae is proctor.

The court also dealt with the matter of the estate of Charles Frederick Godfrey, late of Fairville, carpenter. He died from the effects of an accident on January 5. He left no will. Surviving are his wife, Mary Godfrey and four sons and four daughters, all under age. On the petition of the widow and children, James E. Anderson, of Fairville, carpenter, a brother-in-law of the deceased, was appointed administrator. Real estate consists of a property in an avenue, valued at $3,000, on which there is a mortgage for half that amount. Personally $200 in life insurance, $1,400. George H. V. Belyea is proctor.

In the matter of Gladys G., Charles E., Viola T., William F. Clifford, Hattie M., Blanche L. and Harvey LeRoy Godfrey, infant children of Charles Frederick Godfrey, James E. Anderson of Fairville, uncle by marriage, was appointed guardian. The infants' estates consist of an interest in real estate, George J. Y. Belyea is proctor.

The court also dealt with the estate of Daniel Coram, late of Carleton, fisherman. He died in last November, intestate. He was a son of the late Joseph Coram, M. P. P. He had never married. His next of kin are Mary M., wife of Walter G. Weisford of St. John, teamster; John G. Abram, railroad employe; John A. Abram, carpenter; Elizabeth, wife of Harry Crozier all of Providence, R. I., the children of Esther Abram, a deceased sister; Ella M. Ferguson and Smith's children; of Elizabeth Root, another deceased sister; Amelia M., wife of Joseph P. Smith, of St. John; Joseph Langford, of Westport, South Dakota, hotel-keeper, and Walter E. Coram of Waterloo, Iowa, shoemaker, the call of the United States Coram, a deceased brother. On the petition of all those resident within this province, John A. Sinclair was appointed administrator. There is no real estate; personally consisting of leasehold in force in the city of St. John, valued at $100. Baxter & Logan are proctors for the petitioner, S. A. M. Skinner proctor for an alleged next of kin.

The court today dealt with the matter of the estate of Frank Hunter, clerk. He was a resident of Chicopee, Mass., and died unmarried and intestate in Springfield, Mass., in last December. He was a son of Andrew Hunter, who, with Frank Hunter's two uncles, William and James, died before him. William Hunter, an uncle, also died intestate. He left a small estate which Margaret Swett, his sister, an aunt of Frank Hunter, was appointed administratrix in the Surrogate Court of Suffolk County, Massachusetts, and now to close that estate, Mrs. Swett, who is widow of Shaw Swett, a sergeant in the United States Army in the Civil War, asks for administration of Frank Hunter's estate, and is accordingly sworn in as such. There is no real estate; personally under $200. Stephen W. Palmer is proctor.

The will of Miss Catherine Fraser, late of Gardiner's Creek, Simons, was proved. She gives all her estate to John A. Sinclair of St. John, barrister, and to her sister, Jessie Fraser of Gardiner's Creek, in trust to hold the real estate for the sister for life, and after her death to pay it to her son, George C. Forbes of Gardiner's Creek, a farmer. The rest of her estate she gives to her sister Jessie. Such sister having died, Miss Fraser died intestate as to her personally. Her next of kin are two first cousins, George C. Forbes and William J. Forbes of East St. John, grocer; William Forbes of Boston, a son of Alexander Forbes, a deceased cousin, and the children of Peter Forbes, a deceased cousin, who reside in California. The real estate consists of a property at Gardiner's Creek valued at $700; personally $800. John A. Sinclair, the surviving executor, was sworn in as such. Kenneth J. MacRae is proctor.

Bread Goes Up a Cent

Local Bakers Send it up on Strength of Increase in Flour Price -- Nine Cents to Consumer

The Bakers' Association announced that the price of bread will be increased one cent a loaf here on Monday next. This will make the price nine cents to the consumer. A prominent baker in conversation with The Times this morning said that this step had become necessary because of the great increase in the price of flour. On August 2 Manitoba flour was $2.45 a barrel, but immediately thereafter sharply and rapidly advanced, and today the price is $3.45 a barrel. Ever since August, this baker said, they had kept the price of bread down, although under ordinary conditions they would have been justified in advancing the price some time ago.

The bakers, he said, were sometimes criticized and unfair comparisons made. In order to make a fair comparison of bread prices in different cities in Canada it should be stated exactly what grade of flour was used in each case, and this was not always done. He said it was true that bread was sold a little cheaper in England than in Canada. This was due to the fact that flour was probably sold a little cheaper in England than in St. John, but it was also true that there was less expenditure in England for wages, rent, light and fuel.

AT HIS NEW POST

Ex-Sergeant Henry Kilpatrick, who recently resigned from the police force to accept a post as superintendent of the city watchmen at West St. John. Kilpatrick was on the police force for thirty one years having served under the late Captain Hawkins in the town of Portland, and later on the city police force. It was while doing service in the city that he was promoted to the position of sergeant, which office he held until the time of his resignation. During his long and faithful service he won the respect and esteem of many friends and was considered a first class official and a conscientious worker. His many friends will be pleased to hear that he likes his new occupation, and has inaugurated a new system which is a decided improvement over the old.

SOME COMMENT ON THE ESTIMATES

A correspondent asks how the mayor knows there will not be enough money to give the school board that $10,000. He says the daily papers contain a notice, signed by all the assessors, giving the citizens thirty days from January 5 in which to send in true statements of all their assessable property, and therefore February 4 would be the earliest possible date on which the assessors could figure the correct amount on which taxes could be levied.

The correspondent contends that if the departments at city hall had kept their estimates below those of last year, as was done by the school board, there would have been no angry meetings in the board of trade. He also declares that the school board is more efficiently managing its affairs than the various civic departments are doing with theirs and that therefore if there is to be any further cut in the estimates it should be made at city hall and not by the school board.
