TO BOX IN SYDNEY.

Joe Irvine, the local boxer, has been matched with Johnny McIntyre, of Sydney, for a twelve-round match there on next Friday evening. According to the arrangements the winner takes fifty per cent. of the receipts and there is a side bet of $500. Irvine expects to weigh in at about 140 pounds and McIntyre tips the beam in the neighborhood of that same figure. Young Dempsey, another local boxer, a few days ago boxed McIntyre in Sydney, but on account of an injured hand Young Dempsey had to retire in the fourth round and McIntyre got the decision. Johnny McIntyre is a brother of the well-known former boxer, Mickey McIntyre. Irvine will leave early in the week for Sydney.

HEAVIER PENALTY IS RECOMMENDED

Fredericton, March 10.—The report of the chief inspector under the Intoxicating Liquor Act, 1916, was tabled in the house this afternoon by Hon. C. W. Robinson, acting provincial secretary.

It shows that during the year the total number of prosecutions conducted by the department was 690. There were 991 convictions and eighty-nine dismissals. The staff consists of one chief inspector, one stenographer and clerk and twenty-eight inspectors.

The report says in part that while throughout the year it was found necessary to make some changes in the staff, the enforcement of the act was carried on without any disruption or friction and that the results obtained have been most satisfactory.

The inspectors were unusually successful during the last year in rounding up a class commonly known as bootleggers. A campaign was launched against this particular class of offenders and reports received from the magistrates throughout the province indicate that the campaign was successful.

The report suggests that an amendment be made to "The Intoxicating Liquor Act, 1916" so as to make it possible for the magistrates throughout the province to impose the maximum penalty of $200 on all persons who in any way obstruct inspectors or other public officers in the performance of their duties under the act.

As the intoxicating liquor act stands today the penalty for obstruction is provided for under two different sections viz., 92 and 96. Section 92 in the matter of obstruction provides for penalty for first offence of not less than $50 or more than $200. Section 96 provides for penalty for first offence of not less than $20 or more than $80.

The wholesale license system was done away with during the last year and the New Brunswick liquor license commission is now in control of the sale of liquor for medicinal purposes to the retail vendors throughout the province.

HEARS HE IS HEIR TO AN EARLDOM

Chicago, March 10.—Cyril Woodward Clueley Armstrong, one time Canadian farm hand, and at present a lawyer in this city, today was informed that he is heir to a British earldom.

Mr. Armstrong was sent to Canada from England when sixteen years of age and secured his first job as a laborer for William and James Johnson on a farm near Norwich (Ont.). Later he worked on a farm near Stratford (Ont.), and was for a time a subscription solicitor of the Stratford Beacon.

Mr. Armstrong received a communication which had been sent to friends of his by the Consular department in Washington in response to queries from relatives in India asking that he be located.

NAVY LEAGUE
MAY DISSOLVE

Financial Difficulties and Dis-ensions Within the Organization.

London, March 11.—(Canadian Press.)
The Navy League, established in 1893, is in danger of dissolution owing to financial difficulties and to internal dis-ensions which, beginning after the conclusion of the war, became accentuated since the Washington conference.

The executive yesterday decided that unless both kinds of difficulties were overcome within a month, steps would be taken to dissolve.
