ST. JOHN'S GREATEST MERCANTILE EVENT

Oak Hall's 31st Anniversary Sale Ends Tonight at Ten O'clock.

There are only a few more hours before the end of St. John's Greatest Mercantile Event, but, even so, experienced shoppers will know that, although the time is short they will find a splendid organization ready to respond to the slightest wish, and they know they will find many additional lines of merchandise laid out for these last few hours, simply because they have found from experience that Oak Hall devotes just as much thought and energy toward offering ample assortments of money-saving opportunities during the last day of their sale to the late shoppers as they did during the first day of their sale to the early shoppers.

Furthermore the Oak Hall motto of Large Volume at Minimum Profit has proved itself well chosen. Those who have already done their shopping realize that Oak Hall is getting the volume, and the values they have been able to procure go to prove that the very minimum of profit is in vogue. But there are only a very few hours now in which one may take advantage of these opportunities, so it behooves those who are desirous of doing so must decide at once as delay in this case, will be fatal to the opportunity, after ten o'clock tonight it will be too late.

DECLARE HIM NOT GUILTY OF BETRAYAL OF EDITH CAVELL

Paris, Jan 24—The court reviewing the case of the alleged traitor, Gaston Quien, who was sentenced to death, has decided he was not guilty of betraying Edith Cavell, but that he still is subject to hearing on charges of intelligence with the enemy and swindling.

Quien was sentenced to death after testimony at his trial had indicated he was implicated in the plot which led to betrayal of Edith Cavell, the British nurse executed in Belgium by the Germans for her alleged efforts to help prisoners to escape.

COMMERCIAL CLUB HAS A BUSY SESSION

Matters of Live Local Interest Dealt With.

Many matters of interest were discussed last night at the meeting of the Commercial Club, held in the rooms of the G. W. V. A. A suggestion was made by S. E. Elkin, M. P., that the club engage a theatre in Ottawa for a night in February and show pictures of St. John harbor and the work being done there, in order to impress upon the members the needs of the port. C. H. Peters suggested the employment of motion picture men and publicity experts, acting in conjunction with the board of trade and common council.

The transportation committee reported a marked discrimination against the city in freight rates. The employment of a freight and traffic expert was suggested.

Objection was taken by L. P. D. Tilley to the "silly custom" of the blowing of the fire siren at all times of the day, in speaking on this matter brought up by a letter to the club, but no action was taken.

A letter from Joe Page offering to bring to the city six big baseball men and artists from the states next fall to go into the woods hunting, was left with the executive to be acted upon.

The housing committee through R. S. Ritchie reported the inadequacy of the present civic building by-law and Commissioner Thornton said he would be glad of the assistance of the club in forming a new by-law. Regarding the suggestion that the city take over the collection of ashes and garbage, R. D. Paterson thought that the two items should be separated because a revenue might be derived from the collection of garbage if the privilege could be sold.

It was decided that the club should employ a permanent secretary.

The chairman of the hotel committee reported progress in connection with that project, saying a good site was obtainable and funds seemed certain for the success of the undertaking.

Dr. Grimmer appealed in behalf of the dominion employment bureau for co-operation in the matter of employment for returned men. A. M. Belding spoke of the need of a central playground association and asked that two members be appointed from the club to act with others in this connection. N. P. McLeod and Dr. Stanley Bridges were named for this purpose.

Twenty-six new members were elected, including James Christie, F. E. Sayre, C. M. Steeves, Fred Girvan, H. S. Keith, W. C. Gunter, W. F. Burdett, A. F. Holyoke, William E. Golding, F. E. Garnett, George E. Day, F. V. Thompson, I. K. Farrer, Alfred Burley, A. C. L. Tapley, Samuel C. Jones, W. E. Sculley, M. Flood, John N. Flood, W. E. A. Lawton, M. L. Macphail, A. S. White, Harry W. Heans, George P. Hennessey, Frank H. Rowe, E. P. Creary.

OPPOSED VACCINATION; IS SMALLPOX VICTIM

In an article about the smallpox epidemic in Toronto, The Mail and Empire of that city says:—"Among the victims yesterday was Ald. Sam Ryding, who was taken ill on Friday last, but it was not until yesterday that his physician diagnosed the disease from which he was suffering as smallpox. It is only a very mild attack, but it was deemed advisable to remove the patient to the old General Hospital for treatment. The irony of this case lies in the fact that Ald. Ryding is a member of the Board of Health, and that he has consistently and persistently opposed compulsory vaccination
