

Department, and Primary School. Teachers in training in the Normal School are employed in these Schools, under the supervision of the Head Master and Mistress.

Details of all the above courses of study, with the fees and the dates of commencement of the classes, will be found in the following pages under the proper heads.

The regulations of the University have been framed on the most liberal principles, with the view of affording to all classes of persons the greatest possible facilities for the attainment of mental culture and professional training. In its religious character the University is Protestant, but not denominational; and, while all possible attention will be given to the character and conduct of students, no interference with their peculiar religious views will be sanctioned.

ST. FRANCIS COLLEGE, Richmond, is an affiliated College of the University; and its matriculated students may prosecute any part of their course of study in the Faculty of Arts, and may be admitted to examination for the degree of B. A.
