said that the minister was his explanation. This affected the other hatch. the Birkenhead hatchery s estimated, have produced s what it did. wthornthwaite wanted to fish, after being stripped of turned to the dam. elty to Indians.

did not know whether they ed to the dam. He defied nt to deny that the comd the streams patrolled by who threatened to shoot s who sought to take salrced these Indians to take en fish after being stripornthwaite said attacks ade from time to time from n side upon Mr. Babcock. il servant, Dr. Fagan, had ed a few years ago. If he noved then it would have ter to the province, as he the right man in the right the past few years. with waite said he did not er Mr. Babcock were an Canadian. It was a hether he was competent. e liked to hear from Mr. e of the men in the House ert information. He did Mr. Oliver an expert. He ve of an attack like this ed up by expert evidence. Fulton said the figures of for Delta did not show about 200,000 fish entered about 100,000 were let out that only 40,000 were kept g purposes. that men were employed ndians from getting fish Mr. Babcock's last report 5.000 salmon that had no ed were smoked by the Incontended that there was employ retaining ponds at any more than they should the Dominion hatcheries. ption to the sneers of Mr. vaite as to his (Mr. vledge of salmon canning rm him that the first the province was in his and that the Fraser was he fishing industry. He Ir. Hawthornthwaite that ery fisherman on nded the dismissal of this t the late member for down and demanded the his man at the request of cy. The cannerymen, with n of the Canners' Associa-Mr. Babcock represented led the dismissal of this g, Mr. Oliver said that Mr.

presented the Canners' As-tich sought to ruin the inploving fish traps. nded that Mr. Hawthornup simply to hear himself

The item passed.

its second reading.

preceding bill.

in the evening.

Fulton said that at one of n hatcheries the fish were in a box 10 feet square to be stripped. son wished to know If onald, when he was memoet, did not ask to have issed. Mr. Eagleson said een the salmon after they handed over to the Inad also seen men natrolns preventing the taking He had seen a man on the hook lifting the fish out. matter which called for leration ornthwaite said that if was backed up by the ociation it spoke well for canners were experts and ited in the preservation of said that Mr. Babcock by the Canners' Associae advocated fish trans 'onservative candidate, in securing a The bill passed its second reading. share in this. It would appear that that was conditional upon the return of the Conservative candidate. The 2,500 was not at all adequate to the peeds. A promise had been given by the Premier that Rossiand was to share in the two per cent tay which was the two per cent tay which was share in this. It would appear that that was conditional upon the return amend the Supreme Court Act, Hon. the Premier that Rossland was to share in the two per cent. tax, which was construed as meaning that Rossland was to get one half of the tax. Hon. Mr. Fulton on the bill to amend the Timber Measurement Act, 1906, He did not object to the province getting a revenue from the minerals. explained that according to the act of 1906, the British Columbia scale was But the province in taxing these mines not made to apply to the timber east fiscated the right of the city to tax of the Cascades, owing to the logs bethe surface and the machinery of the nines. He was rot asking a gift to Rossland, he simply asked that the city get its rights.

and the surface and the surface and the simply asked that the city get its rights.
He was willing to admit that if Na-naimo had to provide for the educanaimo had the educanaimo had the educanaimo had the educanaimo had to provide for the educanaimo had th

Hon. Mr. Tatlow admitted that there was a good deal of justice in the pro-position put forward by the leader of vic-the opposition. He expected to look into this matter before the next ses-sion. Mr. Hawthornthwaite said that if it were true that Rossland was not ob-taining any revenue from the surface rights of the minister should let this it was proposed to make it necessary then that city had a grievance. He thought the minister should let this it was proposed to make it necessary for the persons socking to improve the baind to should be considered in the same way.

year, pending the change in the system of taxation. He pointed out that the mineral tax, inasmuch as it was in lieu the the termineral tax, inasmuch as it was in lieu

Mr. Oliver took exception to some paying for municipal purposes. They were doing this and meeting their liamight be amended in committee. The bill pased its second reading. bilities in a way which did credit to

After some other discussion, Hon. Mr. Tatlow promised to look into this. Mr. Macdonald said that the people of Rossland did not ask it to be looked Promises had been made time well as to locomotive engines. and time again to look into this. It nent Company, with Dr. King in the Mr. Macdonald pointed out that Van-ouver city taxed its factories whe-The bill was reported complete. ouver city taxed its factories whether the profits were large or small. The House then adjourned.

This was all the city of Rossland asked—the right to collect taxes from the surface values of the mines of the city. (From Thursday's Daily.)

In the legislature yesterday the con-G. R. Naden pointed out that the Municipalities Union had considered this and passed a resolution favoring recognition of this claim of Ross-d. ist leader assorting that one quarter of the expenditure for the province Dyking Assessments.

By message from His Honor the had gone to that constituency. By message from His Honor the Lieut.-Governor, a bill to amend the Dyking Assessments Adjustment Act, 1905, was introduced and advanced to its second reading. The University Endowment Bill oc-cupled the remainder of the day. In connection with it there was manifest-ed the same sublen opposition from the Its second reading. By another message from His Honor a bill to revise and amend the Rivers and Steamers Act was introduced and advanced to the same stage as the intervention opposition from the same stane opposition from the sovernment side of the House as ex-listed ever since the bill came down. If anything the Conservative members evidenced greater suspicion than at any the the time same stage as the receding bill. The House then adjourned until 8.30 other time concerning it, and in one instance, that of A. H. B. Macgowan, open opposition was taken to it. Mr. Upon resuming in the evening, the following bills, were introduced and passed their first readings:

passed their first readings: By J. H. Garden, a bill to amend the Land Registry Act and by W. H. Hayward a bill to amend the Municipal Elections Act. The bill to amend the Jurors Act was

The bill to amend the Jurors Act was reported and passed its third reading.

VICTORIA TIMES. FRIDAY, APRIL 19, 1907.

give the province, and which were re- amounts for the sale of public lands four or five years. There would in sulting in good effects.

river to get the permission of the carried. main should be considered in the same way. Mr. Macdonald hoped to see the gov-ernment grant $10,000 to Rossland this year, pending the change in the system of taxation. He pointed out that the communication at the proceeding. It was also provided that a fee of $100 should be paid for the franchise and an annual, fee of $25. John Oliver moved the adjournment of the debate which carried. There was a strike on in Victoria in the communication at the request of Mr. Macdonald, Hon, Mr. Tatlow said the money had

Mr. Oliver took exception to some points in the bill which he supposed formerly men presented themselves feudalism. It was a lot of trumpery in whenever a call was made for them, keeping with a lot of a similar kind

The bill pased its second reading: On the second reading of the bill to a shortage of labor. If the price of It was ridiculous to have full grown amend the Bush Fire Act, the attor-ney-general said that the act was made to apply to stationary engines as and time again to look into this. It was now the time for action. Mr. Carter-Cotton pointed out that the two per cent. tax might fluctuate and in some years scarcely anything might be got from the mines at Ross-of the shortage of labor as the minis- roads after washouts.

INTENSIFIED FRUIT JUICES AN IMPROVEMENT ON NATURE

Remarkable Success Attends the Finding of a New Medicinal Compound by Combining the Juices of Apples, Oranges, Figs and Prunes.

Fruit helps to keep one healthy. | active medicinally than the fruit juices. Fruit, in itself, will not cure disease. Where eating fruit only helped to keep The medicinal principle-or that part one well, this compound actually cured of fruit which has a curative effect- disease.

is in such infinitesimal quantities, To make it more valuable still, this that it is unable to overcome a diseas- physician added the finest tonics and ed condition of the stomach, liver, antiseptics, and then, by evaporating bowels, kidneys or skin. the entire compound to a powder, made Just here is where science stepped in. it into tablets.

An Ottawa physician did what nature This, in short, is the method of makcould not do. He first found that some ing "Fruit-a-tives "-these wonderful fruits were stronger medicinally than tablets - the most reliable cure for others-and that apples, oranges, figs Constipation, Billousness, Stomach and prunes contained all the healing Troubles, Kidney and Bladder Disease properties of other fruits. There are and Skin Affections. Being made from two principles in fruit juices-bitter fruit, "Fruit-a-tives" may be taken and sweet. After extracting the juices by women and children without fear of of the four fruits mentioned, this phy- ill-effect.

sician succeeded in replacing one atom Don't take a substitute. If you of the sweet principle by one of the druggist does not handle them, bitter. This resulted in an entirely 50c for a box to Fruit-a-tives Limited, new combination being formed. This Ottawa.

solutions from committee of supply were read a first time. On their second reading John Oliver moved to reduce the vote for the Seton lake hatchery to $10,000 cutting out the $3,000 for the sal-dclared that the government would be the cost of bonds, etc., upon the province. If the lands had as at ary of the fishery commissioner. The amendment of Mr. Oliver was lost Parker Williams moved to strike out Parker Williams moved to strike out the vote of $15,000 for immigration. In support of this Mr. Williams said this from the timber men had arrived in the from the timber men had arrived in the from the timber men had arrived in the It increased the burdens of the people was what was known as the Salvation Army vote. Mr. Hawthornthwaite said this vote really was for the purpose of bringing "scab" labor in British Columbia.

The speaker called Mr. Hawthornth- in the scope and title of the bill as inwaite to order. Hon. Mr. Young said he proposed to roads would have been the same had incorporate the amendment in the amended University Act to be introduced next year. He had sent a copy the name of the province. of it to Mr. Hawthornthwalte, and the Mr. Macdonald said that this had latter put it on the order paper. (Laughter.) He would not accept this as an amendment to this bill. Mr. Macdonald said that the bill to had been changed altogether. Mr. Macdonald said that the bill to amend the University Act was the simplest duty of the government. That should have been introduced before this bill, the more important one and the one requiring most care, was brought down.

the farming was unprofitable because is do have as the mining the a state of the watch is a state of the watch is a state was not due to association in the factor washould be association of the mining the dual table and the factor of the course of the ware to the way this bill was to be appendix on the factor of the course of the way to be appendix to wasto being of the course of the way to be appendix to wasto being of the course of the way to be appendix to wasto being of the course of the way to be appendix to wasto being of the course of the way to be appendix to wasto being of the course of the way to be appendix to wasto being of the course of the way to be appendix to wasto being of the course of the way to be appendix to wasto being of the course of the way to be appendix to wasto being of the course of the way to be appendix to wasto being of the course of the way to be appendix to wasto being of the course of the way this bill wasto be appendix to wasto being of the course of the way the solution wasto being of the course of the way the solution wasto being of the course of the way this bill wasto be appendix to wasto being of the course of the way the solution wasto being of the course of the way this bill wasto being of the course of the way the solution wasto being of the course of the way the solution wasto being of the course of the way the solution wasto being of the course of the way the solution wasto being of the course of the way the solution wasto being of the course of the way the solution wasto being of the way the solution wasto being of the way the solution wasto being of the course of the way the solution wasto being of the solution wasto being of the way the soluthe place of the way the solution wasto being of the way the so

THE EVENING SESSION.

Upon resuming in the evening, the re-was what was known as the Salvation really was for the purpose of bringing "scab" labor in British Columbia. The amendment to strike out the item

The resolutions passed their second

The House went into committee to vote supply to His Majesty and the for-mal motion was passed and reported to

The bill to amend the Administration Act passed its third reading. On the further consideration of the

The lieutenant-governor in council may reserve from pre-emption, sale or

Army vote.

was lost.

reading.

the House.

Hon. Mr. Young said that this insti-tution when established would not be considerable was to be spent. The bill 112

Look the states

A Discovery that is Revolutionizing Medicine.

a sliding scale of from 2½ per cent.
b ringing people to the province.
Mr. Williams contended that the government entered into some arrangement with the Salvation Army to bring men out here. After doing this circulars asking whether labor was received to go out and get purchasers to any labor men. He instanced one locality for moming there was a scretter of the government. He instanced one locality for moming there was a scretter of the government there was a scretter of the government sent out on March 20th the government sent out on the same spirit in this march 20th the government sent out on the same spirit in this march 20th there was a shortare. Other was a shortare of the government there was a shortare of the government there was a shortare of the of taxation. He pointed out that the mineral tax, inasmuch as it was in lieu upon the minerals, and the surface, al-though brought in under the name of mineral tax. The people in the little city of Rossiand were paying double the taxes residents of other cities were mineral tax. The people in the little city of Rossiand were paying double the taxes residents of other cities were mineral tax. The people in the little city of Rossiand were paying double the taxes residents of other cities were mineral tax. The people in the little city of Rossiand were paying double the taxes residents of other cities were the taxes residents of the taxes restations the taxes restations the taxes restating the taxes restat there was not the number answering entertained in the House, which includ-vell as to locomotive engines. The Goldstream Telephone Company's the printers in the government office de-manded increased pay a short time ago. Hon. Mr. Tatlow retorted as the So-

"nerve" to do in a specific way what it did in a general way. If that course expenditure for Richmond came up, Mr.

On the point of the representations that farming was unprofitable because good part of this was for repairing the some of the men who were now doing for Richmond.

```
some of the men who were now doing nothing but riding in automobiles.
There was a strike in Victoria, and the coal mines in the interior. If these peober.
of the bill to whether it is not out of order and re-coal mines in the interior. If these people on strike came to the government to ask assistance they got none, but the government would help the employers.
Mr. Hawthornthwaite asked about the arrangements with the Salvation Hon. Mr. Tatlow explained that negotictions work after with the tictions were antered into with the tictions were antered into with the
tictions were antered into with the ng of the Fraser river end the Land Act, Dr. King resumed quires to be brought down in its pres-nthwaite contended fish the debate. He thought the present increase worked to the disadvantage of the Lieut.-Governor. The point more human method of an the gill nets.
                                                                                                                                                                      The point was e mill men who were working on raised by Stuart Henderson atacked this view of the provincial lands as who held their land from the
                                                                                                                                             THE PROCEEDINGS.
                                                                                                                                                                                                      Hon. Mr. Tatlow explained that negotiations were entered into with the Hon. Mr. Fulton, after making innent was lost and the Dominion. From the Dominion the land Prayers were read by Rev. W. Leslie fish hatchery passed.
                                                                                                                                                                                                    tiations were entered into with the Salvation Army some months ago, and also arrangements were sought with the transportation companies. It had interesting the transportation companies it have the C. P. R. give to immigrants coming to British Columbia a rate similar to that given to those a mile from one wharf to the warf to the versity he might say doing such splan.
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                             assured him to-day that this would be done and all the equipment and endow-"The lands to be so set aside shall was held at $5 a square mile, while un-tion was taken to the Clay. the provincial Act it was $115 and Hon. F. J. Fulton presented the an-50 to the flockmasters.
                                                              $150 a mile. As a very considerable nea was worked under the Dominion ule, those who operated on the pro-ule, those who operated nearly handloor nual report of the fish and game war-ntended that this for the purpose of provid-rule, those who operated on the provincial lands were severely handicap-er for the knickerbocker The House then again went into com-coming to the Northwest. It was 'proposed to have this arrangement come into effect in so far as British Columbia The royalty on Dominion lands mittee of supply. was 50 cents a thousand and the inward defended the grant, rease of the provincial royalty to 75 rents would give a still greater adantage to the mill men who were antage to the mill men who helt ich benefit was derived cents would give a still greater ad-wished to know if the govuld favorably consider an from a man who had re-operating in the Dominion land belt. argued that the profits were not the sons why persons in other walks of $40 was sought. A per capita grant in view of this scheme with the C. P. R. the words: "and shall be subject to all tion or portions thereof, shall be alien-the reservation in favor of one religious being carried out, was proposed to be being carried out, was pro d an industry in his rid-to give up housekeeping and go board-what they were often represented to be. Besides the failure of the crops in the prairie sections would press very severely upon the British Columbia raising goats. (Laughter.) te of $7,000 for the destruc-severely upon the British Columbia lumbermen. This increase in royalty would not effected the speculator about which so much was heard, but the acthal mill man.
He alluded to the fact that the Pre-could be continued in office. He did not migh page propriation of sub a continued in office. He did not was conditional, that all immigrants
could be continued in office. He did not
was conditional, that the Pre-
could be continued in office. He did not
was conditional, that the Pre-
could be continued in office. He did not
was conditional, that the Pre-
could be continued in office. He did not
was conditional, that the Pre-
could be continued in office. He did not
was conditional, that the Pre-
could be continued in office. He did not
was conditional that the Pre-
could be continued in office. He did not
was conditional that the Pre-
could be continued in office. He did not was conditioned to the province and needing aid should get it.
I. M. McInnes wasted to know it the source. The negotiation with the Sal-
could be continued in office. He did not
was conditional, that all immigrants
source. The negotiation with the Sal-
could be continued in office. He did not waster the rest of Finance got his military frank from the Salvation Army.
He alluded to the fact that the Pre-could be continued in office.
He diverse the rest of the province and needing aid should get it.
  es, panthers and cov inthwaite suggested that dowment purposes. If this were done the timber royalty would go to the university. This would amount to a vast sum and it was not the intention of the used, as a most effective benefit she had derived from Dr. Wil-ving game liams' Pink Pills and advised me to try them. I sent and got three boxes, Young said that there was
                                                             He alluded to the fact that the Premier had practically promised a new act next year. The government had conceded to the mill men that they would not put the new royalty into effect until January. As a new act would be brought down next session it was not worth while pressing this bill
now. It would be better to lay it over.
The down as a new act
was not worth while pressing this bill
now. It would be better to lay it over.
The down as a new act
ful service.
The down as a new act
was not worth while pressing this bill
now. It would be better to lay it over.
The down as a new act
ful service.
The diffect in the service of the province
ful service.
The down as a new act
ful service.
The down as a new act
ful service.
The diffect in the service of the province
ful service.
The down as a new act
ful service.
The diffect in the service of the province
ful service.
The diffect in the service of the province
ful service.
The diffect in the service of the province
ful service.
The diffect in the service of the province
ful service.
The diffect in the service of the province
ful service.
The diffect in the service of the province
ful service.
The diffect in the service of the province
ful service.
The diffect in the service of the province
ful service.
The diffect in the service of the province
ful service.
The diffect in the service of the province
ful service.
The diffect in the service of the province
ful service.
The diffect in the service of the province
ful service.
The diffect in the service of the province
ful service.
The diffect in the service of the province
ful service.
The diffect in the service of the province
ful service.
The diffect in the service of the province
ful service.
The diffect in the service of the province
ful service.
The diffect in the service of t J. M. McInnes wanted to know if this alties.
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               House, he believed, to grant these roy- the practice to allow free miners, coal and by the time I had used them I is year. It had further prospectors and settlers to enter upon I got four boxes more, and before they d that in the payment of was not now necessary e heads of the animals. ment took the place of one he had proposed to move. He would, therefore, withdraw his amendment. If this passthe university. He hoped the minister ng the value of the skin. of the wolves the skins about $3 each. With the would be given to the university, but the royalties which were part of the self had sent across to the member for this was worth while.
    rnthwaite wanted atten-This completed the estimates, and the
                                                                                                                                ful service.
                                                                           lebate was adjourned on motion ed into it would be in the way of a committee rose and reported to the revenue of the crown, would not go to the member for the university. The endowment begin-The report on the bill to amend the ing at $5,000,000 in value would con-Mr. Hawthornthwaite did not fully the destruction of preda-Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are the W. J. Bowser.
                                                                                                                                     John Oliver wanted to know if Mr. ke hawks, etc.
                                                                                                                                                                                                       loan.
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       greatest cure there is for the weak.
                                                                                                                                                                                                         In reply to Mr. Hawthornthwaite, suggested that Socialists The Sanitorium.
                                                                                                                                  Gore resigned, or was asked to resign.
                                                                                                                                    Hon. Mr. Tatlow said that Mr. Gore Hon. Mr. Tatlow said that the per Administration Act was adopted.
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     Mr. Hawthornthwaite did not fully ness and backaches and sideaches of the list. (Laughter.) On the second reading of the bill to anaemia; all the distress of indiges-tinue to grow in value, and before util- accord with this. He endorsed the part orporate the British Columbia Anti- resigned. capita allowance which had been pro-ized would amount to a much greater of it according to free miners the right tion; all the pains and aches wster called attention to to prospect. He could assure the leader of the opposition that the Minister The University Act.
                                                                                                                                      "Was he asked to do so, or was it in- posed to pay the Salvation Army for on the west coast of Van Tuberculosis Society, Hon. F. J. Fulton posed to pay the salvation army for immigrants brought out was $3.
Mr. Hawthornthwaite said that there was a roar going up from the labor interests against this introduction of Sal-vincial lands, J. A. Macdonald moved timated to him that his resignation would be acceptable?" asked Mr. nd were some elk herds id that this explained itself.
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   The amendment was lost.
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 Mr. Hawthonthwaite moved the following amendment:
The difference of the opposition that the Minister amendment. The bill was the first born in the blood suppy. Sold by all medicine dedices dedices and in health that eing depleted more from J. H. Hawthornthwaite contended the government should take the Oliver.
     the wolves than from
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               lowing amendment:
                                                                                                                                    Hon. Mr. Tatlow said he would refer To add to section 5 the following of the minister, and as such he would medicine dealers or by mail at 50c. a box or six boxes for $2.50 from the Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville Co.
   The wolves killed the full responsibility for the establish-labor men were but getting their des- instead of 2,000,000. In support of this "Prov this to the Chief Commissioner, and ium.
 nd it was felt along the tum.

The bill pased its second reading.

Hon. Mr. Fulton proposed the second reading of the bill constituting a court to do his duty as during the last 20

to do his duty as during the last 20

to do his duty as during the last 20

to do his duty as during the last 20

to do his duty as during the last 20

to do his duty as during the last 20

to do his duty as during the last 20

to do his duty as during the last 20

to do his duty as during the last 20

to do his duty as during the last 20

the should be found, he thought, that Mr. Gore Had an intimation made verything should be done. this slaughter by the shall not be so reserved except upon the explicit understanding that instruc-

was lost.
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           -A telegram from Rockford, Illinois, priation of $2,500 to the tion in arts in the University (except Stuart Henderson, on a point of or- the home of Hon. A. E. Smith, the and, J. A. Macdonald again post graduate instruction) shall be free der, called attention to the fact that American consul resident in this city, to all regular students matriculated, the bill had originally been introduced announces that at the city election held tion. K for fiad an intimation made to him by the government that his scheme of oringing out laborers for province there were more complicated cases than came up in Manitoba. There mining cases and admiralty cases that due to the superannuation allowance. Which did not come up in Manitoba. The source state the superannuation allowance. He to up the to work the to the superannuation allowance. He to up the to work the to the superannuation allowance. He to up the to work the to the superannuation allowance. He to up the to work the to the superannuation allowance. He to up the to work the to work the to the superannuation allowance. He to up the to work the to the superannuation allowance. He to up the to work the to the superannuation allowance. He to up the to work the to the superannuation allowance. He to up the to work the to the superannuation allowance. He to up the to work the to the superannuation allowance. He to up the to work the to the superannuation allowance. He to up the to work the to the superannuation allowance. He to up the to work the to work the to the to up the to work the towork tion to such a vote as the city. If the prorong a case against the the city of Rossland had ince in this instance, no hesitation about the Arr. Hawthornthwaite said that this changed, which decessitized the oring-bodies such as the Roman Catholic church to bring in immigrants.
The minister made no reply.
The item passed.
Sum For Commissions
                                                               He thought it was high time that an be some system in this, and a civil ser-ng recognition. The cost ppeliate court was created. The prin- vice act should be introduced. he municipal affairs of ble of the bill was such that no one Mr. Williams thought if superannu-$62,000 a year. The pe-of Rossland affected the ation was to be carried out the prinwould object to.
                                                                 Mr. Hawthornthwaite asked who was ciple should be adopted of treating all city very materially.
                                                                                these judges.
                                                                                                                                                                                                                 Sum For Commissions.
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           dowment at $2.50 an acres $5,000,000.
                                                                                                                                alike.
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            dowment at $2.50 an acres $5,000,000.
In Ontario the endowment was not satisfaction on the part of members on been changed to "set apart by way of —The ladies of St. Mark's church in January last visit.
                                                                                                                                          Vote For Agent-General.
                                                                 Hon. Mr. Fulton said the Dominion
                                                                                                                                                                                                         On the item in the supplementary and urged the return of
                                                                                                                                                                                                      On the item in the supplementary estimates of $30,000 for commissions, Stuart Henderson called attention to Mr. Hawthornthwaite said that if it general, Mr. Oliver wanted to know candidate. The Pre hat the memorial asking ere not going to cost anything a new what the services of the agent-general the two per cent. tax ere not going to cost anything a new shi was thrown on it.
Hon. Mr. Tatlow said they were the best services which Mr. Turner could the fact that there had been large bly received by him, was given by the Premier the salary of a registrar. assist Mr. Campbell the
```