

General Governmental Regulations, Etc.

Students, both Regular and Special, are expected to conduct themselves with propriety, and to observe all the regulations of the Faculty as announced from time to time. Students whose conduct or progress in study shall continue, after suitable admonition, to be unsatisfactory, will not be allowed to remain in the Institution.

Regular and punctual attendance at their classes shall be imperative on all students. Professors will mark the presence or absence of students immediately before commencing the work of the class, and will note as absent those who enter thereafter, unless satisfactory reasons for tardiness be assigned.

No student shall be absent from the College after 10 o'clock at night without special permission of the President.

All students are expected to attend Divine Service on Sunday, and to be punctual in attendance at daily prayers in the College Chapel.

Without necessarily involving expulsion from College, students may be debarred from the privileges of the Residence for failure to conform to the recognized standards of gentlemanly conduct.

No student shall resort to any tavern or place where intoxicating liquors are sold without special permission of the President; and no student who is known to use intoxicating drinks will be allowed to retain his connection with the College.

The use of tobacco on the College premises is not permitted.

Undergraduates are expected to provide themselves with College caps and gowns, and to wear them at Classes and Lectures, at Church, and at all public Collegiate exercises and anniversaries.
