

Late Gossip Of The Sporting World At Home And Abroad

PROSECUTE LEAGUE AUTHORITIES

Some time ago President A. L. Garthwaite, of the Hamilton Canadian league club, announced that members of the Lord's Day alliance in Hamilton had approached him regarding the playing of Sunday ball in Hull, Quebec, where the Ottawa club stages its Sunday games. He was asked to assist the alliance in its attempt to put a stop to the Sunday games, but refused, telling the alliance officials to air their troubles with President J. P. Fitzgerald. This they have done, the latest bulletin from the league headquarters being to the effect that the L. D. A. intends to prosecute.

"Our schedule calls for Sunday games and we intend to adhere to it strictly," said President Fitzgerald, of the Canadian league, when informed of the proposed action of the Toronto Methodist conference to prevent baseball on Sunday. At yesterday's session of the conference attention was called to the fact that games were being played on the Lord's day by teams in the Canadian league. Ottawa, the Sunday town, but strictly speaking, no baseball is played there on the first day of the week, the games being transferred to the Quebec side of the Ottawa river at Hull.

The Rev. David W. Snider, secretary of the Lord's Day Alliance, stated yesterday that permission has been granted by the attorney-general's department to prosecute. He said that public sentiment in Quebec supported Sunday sport, and there was danger of it encroaching on Ontario. The alliance, he intimated, would commence a prosecution in the Quebec courts. President Fitzgerald points out that nobody but the attorney-general of Quebec or his department could institute proceedings with the hope of bringing the matter to trial. "I cannot understand why the Canadian league is made the object of the attack," said President Fitzgerald. "The Eastern and International leagues have been

TAKES SIX TO QUELL JACK M'LEAN

John J. McGraw, manager of the New York National League Club, has announced that the career of the catcher Lawrence ("Larry") McLean, with the Giants had ended. The announcement was made as a result of a fight early Thursday morning in the lobby of a St. Louis hotel, in which McGraw, McGraw, "Dick" Kinsella, scout for the Giants, and a dozen other men participated. McGraw was said to have been the aggressor.

"I am done with 'Larry' McLean," McGraw said. "He will never play with New York again."

McGraw, according to witnesses, escaped from the fray by jumping into a passing automobile. He could not be found later.

McGraw and Kinsella, giving their version of the fight, declared that McGraw came into the lobby with a number of rough companions and accused Kinsella of inducing the New York manager to suspend the catcher for ten days. After a brief interchange of words they said McGraw attacked Kinsella and the fight became general. McGraw said two chairs were broken on McGraw.

"I picked up a chair and broke it over McGraw's head," said Kinsella. "That frightened his gang of ruffians and they fled. McGraw continued to fight until McGraw and I chased him to the street, where he jumped into an automobile filled with women and begged for protection."

Patrons of the hotel who saw the scrimmage said that six ball players assisted in routing McGraw. The witnesses said that as McGraw entered the hotel Kinsella remarked to McGraw, "I'm going to bed." McGraw, they said, then cried, "Not unless you are carried there."

ANTI-BETTING LAW.
Mineola, L. I., June 13.—Justice Jaycox, of the Supreme Court, has refused to grant a writ of certiorari applied for by Charles T. McCarthy, as counsel for Charles J. Jandorf, and William Proctor, who are awaiting action of the Nassau County Grand Jury on a charge of violating the anti-gambling law during the race meeting at Belmont Park. In behalf of the accused men it was contended that no evidence has been submitted to show that their conduct has been such as to place them in the professional class of book-makers.

Assistant District Attorney Wood said he desired to test the anti-gambling law.

ing law on these particular cases. He added that the evidence showed that the accused men had handed out slips of paper and that he would try to prove that these slips were records of wagers.

"I am fully convinced that there is sufficient evidence here to hold these men for the Grand Jury," said Justice Jaycox. "I think it is apparent that they were betting with every one who came along. The evidence reviewed by Mr. Wood indicates to me that they were at Belmont Park for the express purpose of making bets."

BUYS ENGLISH COLT.

Henry Payne Whitney has purchased from A. J. Joyner the unbeaten two-year-old chestnut colt Clapperbill, which has had a brief but sensational career in England. The colt will be brought to this country within a month.

His last appearance in a race under Mr. Joyner's colors was at Newmarket on May 11, when he took up 131 pounds and handily beat a field of fifteen for the Norfolk Two-Year-Old Plate.

Clapperbill is by Thorough out of Azores, by Asyrshire, second dam Portugal, by Galliard out of Rosabelle, by Rosicrucian. He was bred by Dr. G. H. Leach, a noted veterinarian at Newmarket, and as a yearling hecost Mr. Joyner $500. The price paid by Mr. Whitney was not announced, but it is believed to be well above the $10,000 mark. In a letter to a friend here several days ago Mr. Joyner referred to having sold a promising two-year-old for $12,000, but that the sale was cancelled because of the abandonment of his racing engagements. It is believed that the colt to which he referred is Clapperbill.
