WHY THERE IS BUT ONE.

Many baseball fans have often wondered just why there is only one Ty Cobb. Dave Robertson is one answer. Dave has everything that Ty has in the way of physical ability—greater speed, a better arm, greater physical strength, a batting eye that should be supreme.

But when Ty comes upon a slump it means for him merely the beginning of a harder fight. His head never sags and he never eases up for a moment in his battle against a brief decline.

Robertson was batting .353. He looked to be one of the greatest of all time. Then the ever arriving slump came along and Dave became discouraged. He didn't sink and you couldn't say that he quit. But the discouragement was so heavy upon him that most of the rest, for the time being, went out of his life. While Ty was hacking away at his faults and fighting back grimly, Dave was wondering moodily when the slump would pass.

A FAMOUS SIRE.

The trotting horse world may well feel proud of Peter the Great (2:07 1/4). As a sire he has forty 2:10 performers to his credit, of which thirty-five are trotters. In 1915 sixty new standard performers sired by Peter the Great, entered the list. The fastest of his offspring is Peter Volo, 4 (2:02), the world's champion two, three and four year old trotter. Among the greatest futurity winners to the credit of Peter the Great are Peter Volo, 4 (2:02), Grace (2:04 1/2), Sadie Mac (2:06 1/2), Zarzava (2:06 1/2), Peter Thompson, 3 (2:07 1/4), Volga 2, (2:07 1/2), and Miss Harris M. 3 (2:07 1/2).

WELSH RETAINS HIS CHAMPIONSHIP TITLEAccorded Decision on Points
—Portion of Bleachers Collapses, Injuring More Than 100 Spectators.

Colorado Springs, Colo., Sept. 4.—Freddie Welsh retained his title of champion lightweight pugilist of the world today, after going the full scheduled 20 rounds with Charlie White of Chicago.

Referee Billy Roche, of New York, awarded Welsh the decision on points. As the gong sounded at the close of the twentieth round, Roche stood for several moments as if undecided. He then reached out both hands toward the boxers, and many of the spectators believed he was about to award a draw. Suddenly Welsh rushed over to Roche, and placed his glove in the referee's hand, and it was raised aloft, while the official appeared to be reaching for White.

The next instant jubilant friends of the champion swarmed into the ring. An unfortunate accident and unpleasant incident marred the beginning and end of the day's programme. Shortly before 2 o'clock a portion of the bleachers on the south side of the arena collapsed. More than a hundred persons were more or less seriously injured.

When Referee Roche announced his decision in favor of Welsh, the challenger's adherents appeared for the moment spell-bound. Then began a fusillade of hundreds of cushions, which were hurled from all directions at the referee. He was rushed through the crowd by friends and the police to a waiting automobile.

From a spectacular standpoint the battle was considered one of the poorest that has ever been fought for the highest ring honors in the lightweight division. For fully two-thirds of the time the fighters were locked in a succession of clinches. For this many spectators thought Welsh was largely to blame. Throughout the contest of 20 rounds scarcely a blow was struck by either man that did any damage.

Of the blows exchanged White's carried the greater power. While Welsh frequently was on the aggressive, and did his share of the leading, it was noticeable that many of his blows fell short and failed to reach their mark.

Roché stated after the fight that he awarded Welsh the decision for the reason that he did most of the leading.

SHUTOUT GAMES.

Now the dopsters are in with a denial that Alexander, when he turned in his thirteenth shutout, set a record for that sort of thing. They have discovered that back in 1910, when he was at his best, Jack Coombs figured in thirteen American league contests in which no run was made off him. The figures appear to be correct, but do not affect Alexander's record.

All of the Philly star's games were victories for his club. Coombs won only eleven, two of the battles going into overtime and ending with neither team possessed of a run. Technically they were not shutouts, as there was no result. Alexander's record will stand.

A FREAK FEATURE.

A freak feature of the White Sox victory at New York recently was the scoring of three runs by the Sox on four pitched balls, with no hit good for more than one base. Here is the way it happened: Eddie Collins hit the first ball pitched by McGriffe in the fourth inning for a single to center. Jackson hit the next one to center and Collins camped on second. Felsch hit the next one to center and when Magee's throw rolled through Baumann and to the stands Felsch pulled up at third, both runners having scored.

The first ball pitched to Fourmier was turned into a long sacrifice fly and Felsch scored. Here were three runs and one out on four pitched balls. It cannot be done on less than, and such scoring is as rare as an unsanitary triple play.

The somewhat cool weather did not deter a large number of sportsmen from attending the races at Moosepath yesterday. There were four events on the card, including an automobile race. FLAGS TO BE PRESERVED.

Arrangements have been made whereby the flags which have flown over the Canadian Boy Scouts' hut at the front will be preserved as mementoes of the war and of the share that the Boy Scouts of Canada had in it. This action was suggested by Sir Robert Baden-Powell and was heartily approved of by the Canadian General Council of the Boy Scouts Association.

At the end of the war the flags will be sent back to the Canadian Scout Headquarters. It is quite probable that they will be used as challenge flags for presentation to deserving troops.

Series of Five Games Was Opened Yesterday Morning—Four Played During Day.

The Shamrocks and Thistles began their series yesterday morning at nine o'clock. Two five-inning games were staged in the morning and two more in the afternoon. Each team won two games. This means that a fifth game will have to be played to decide the winners. It will probably be played on a Saturday afternoon.

The first game was won by the Thistles, 3-1, with McGuigan pitching and Dever catching.

The second game of the series fell to the Shamrocks with the score 4-1. Knudson and O'Toole played the heavy part.

In the afternoon the Thistles blanked the Shamrocks 2-0, and the Shamrocks reversed the goose egg, defeating the Thistles 9-0. Batteries for the Thistles, McGuigan and Dever, for the first game and O'Connor and McNulty for the second.

For the Shamrocks Elliott and O'Toole played both games.

Games of the war and of the share that the Boy Scouts of Canada had in it. This action was suggested by Sir Robert Baden-Powell and was heartily approved of by the Canadian General Council of the Boy Scouts Association.

At the end of the war the flags will be sent back to the Canadian Scout Headquarters. It is quite probable that they will be used as challenge flags for presentation to deserving troops.
