

EDMUNDSTON HAS BIG CELEBRATION

Parade Through the Streets,
Service Afterwards and a
High Old Time at Night.

Special to The Standard.
Edmundston, Nov. 12.—The end of the war was fittingly observed here today. A large procession formed at the court house at two o'clock. Headed by the Edmundston band, with Arron Lawson as chief marshal, mounted, followed by a squad of returned soldiers and military police in charge of Lieutenant Kelly, the procession started. After the soldiers and military police came a large flag carried by little girls on one side and boys on the other, followed by a number of Red Cross girls carrying different flags, and mounted citizens with hundreds on foot. These were followed by a large number of gaily decorated automobiles. After parading through the principal streets the procession halted at the Church of the Immaculate Conception, and entered, where a Te Deum was sung by Rev. Father Conway, and a choir of male voices. A large Union Jack was suspended above the main altar, and the flags of the different Allies were on each side of the main entrance. After the service the procession reformed and proceeded to the Opera House, where speeches were made by Mayor Laporte, the chairman, Hon. L. A. Dugal, Pius Michaud, M.P., Ex-Mayor Mitchell of Fredericton, J. S. Stevens, Arron Lawson, Doctors Sor many, Simard, and returned soldiers. Tonight the town is ablaze with bonfires, the people giving expression to their joy and happiness that the world war is at an end and Right has triumphed over Might. All stores and places of business were closed today, a public holiday being proclaimed by the mayor in honor of the event.

An announcement by the American Alliance for Labor and Democracy tonight said the selection of a member of the President's official family would be made later.

The statement also made public plans for a conference here on November 30, and December 1, to arrange a programme for the activities of the Alliance throughout the period of reconstruction.

NEWCASTLE TO RUSH
THE VICTORY LOAN

Newcastle, Nov. 12.—A meeting of the Newcastle Relief Committee, appointed by a special meeting of the town council October 28th, to jointly represent the council and the Board of Health, was held in the town office last night.

The meeting accepted with great regret and the heartfelt vote of thanks for her inestimable services, the resignation of Miss Jean Aitken, R. N., who since the 29th September had had charge of the relief work in Newcastle, and also several cases in Nelson. Many cases, as high as fifteen or sixteen a day for sometime had been looked after by Miss Aitken, ably assisted by Miss Laura Williamson, R. N.; Miss Yvonne Buckley, Miss Bessie C. P. Crocker, Miss Annie Masson, Miss Annie McGowan, Miss Hickson, Mrs. L. H. MacLean and Miss Agnes Treadwell.

POPE HAS SYMPATHY FOR PEOPLE OF POLAND

Rome, Nov. 12.—Pope Benedict has written an apostolic letter to Dr. Kakowski, Archbishop of Warsaw, in which he says that in the grave period through which Europe is passing he cannot resist the impulse to show his affection for the Polish nation with words of comfort and hope.

History, he adds, has written in golden letters what Christianity and European civilization owe to Poland, but also record how badly she has been rewarded.

DUKE OF HESSE WILL BE KEPT AT HOME

Amsterdam, Nov. 12.—The Grand Duke of Hesse has been placed under preventive arrest, according to a Darmstadt despatch to the Dusseldorf Nachrichten.

FRENCH DEPUTIES VERY ENTHUSIASTIC

Cessation of Hostilities
Brought Forth Great Burst of Feeling—Many Visitors Were Present.

Paris, Nov. 11.—The chamber of deputies has seldom displayed such unanimity as it did today in cheering each article of the German armistice terms as it was read by Premier Clemenceau. As soon as the premier had read a clause, the entire chamber jumped to its feet and cheered. Generally the tumult was so great that the voice of "the tiger" was lost in the uproar. Only once or twice were there purposeful interruptions by the Socialists.

After reading the conditions, the premier excused himself from making a lengthy address, but said: "In the name of the people of France, and in the name of the government of France let us salute Alsace Lorraine."

There was prolonged cheering, after which the premier added feelingly: "Let us honor the great army who died!" Tears came to the eyes of most of those in the chamber—tears for the memory of the dead and tears from the powerful reaction of the moment. Deputies from Alsace-Lorraine, who had been in France since 1914, and some of whom had fought with the French army were enthusiastically cheered as they presented themselves in the gallery.

The diplomatic gallery was filled and among those present were the Earl of Derby, the British ambassador, United States Ambassador Sharp and the ambassadors from Spain and Italy.

There was a full house of deputies and the empty seats were those marked by the tri-color and crepe which designated the sacrifice of a member who had given his life in the service of his country.

While the session was in progress a battery of 75's maintained a steady cannonade in celebration of the victory from its position along the Seine.

CHATHAM DECIDES NOT TO LIFT THE BAN

LOGGIEVILLE IS NOW CLEAR OF INFLUENZA

Death Visited Only One Home
But Claimed Two Victims
—Victory Loan Campaign is Going Big.

Loggieville, Nov. 11.—The Victory Loan campaign is progressing favorably here. Loggieville has more than doubled its objective, having obtained the handsome sum of $200,100, and the canvassers still continue to "carry on."

The influenza so far as this town is concerned, appears to be over as far as an epidemic goes. The cases in general were all of a mild type. Only one home thus far suffered from death. From it a father and son were taken. The home referred to was that of Harry Chaisson. About two weeks ago Mr. Chaisson was called to Boiestown where his son was ill. Some time after his arrival there the boy died and the father brought the remains to his home here, and they were then sent to Baie St. Anne for interment. Soon after that a son at home became ill and then the father. The boy recovered, but the father passed away on Thursday last. His remains were also taken to Baie St. Anne for burial. The heartfelt sympathy of the townsfolk goes out to the bereaved mother and widow.

The news that the war was over was received here as everywhere else, with great delight. Church bells were rung, and whistles blown for an extended period of time. Flags were speedily flown from many of the citizen's homes, and from the business houses. During the evening announcement was made that the following day would be a holiday. Although there was some doubt whether or not the report was a true one, crowds flocked to Chatham to attend the celebration there.

Relatives here have recently received word that Albert Savoy of Maine had succumbed to Spanish influenza. He was a son of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Savoy of this town. He had been residing in the United States for a number of years. Albert had many friends here who regret to learn of his death.

ITALY'S KING FEELS VERY WELL PLEASED

Rome, Nov. 12.—King Victor Emmanuel, responding recently to the congratulations of the ministry to the Italian victory, said:

"In this solemn hour, which marks the achievement of all the aspirations of the country, it is most agreeable to me to see the strong determination for the welfare and grandeur of Italy in the progress now commenced toward a new and greater destiny."

Gen. Diaz, addressing Premier Orlando, conveyed the congratulations of the army.

Peter O'Neill, of Chelmsford, was very low with pneumonia last night.

There are about six cases of diphtheria in the parish of Blackville, one at Redbank and one at Sunny Corner.
