Draws Chess Game with Lasker.

New York, Oct. 16-The first game series of seven to be played by Doctor Manhattan Chess Club was played this evening, when Otto Roething met the champion. The latter lost the toss and declined to accept a Queen's Gambit of-fered by White. Roething managed to remain on even terms for the greater part of the game and although Lasker is said to have had winning chances in the end game stage, Roething succeeded in drawing the game after 71 moves.

The following have been installed officers

Look Pleasant.

Look reasons.

We cannot, of course, all be handsome,
And it's hard for us all to be good.
We are sure now and then to be lonely.
And we don't always do as we should.
To be patient is not always easy,
To be cheerful is much harder still,
But at least we can always be pleasant,
If we make up our minds that we will.

Callers at the rectory Wednesday were many, and expressions of sorrow at the death of one whom all honored and respected were general.

The body is now lying in state in the parlor of the rectory, which with the main hall has been draped in sombre trappings and converted into a chamber of mourning. The body is robed in the full purple vestments and on the head is the biretta.

The lying-in-state will continue until Friday morning, when the body will be carried into the church by the pall bearers. The altars of the church will be draped.
