

- CANADIAN OVERSEAS TELECOMMUNICATIONS CORPORATION (COTC): see under US (trans-Atlantic cable)
- CANOL PIPELINES
Disposition of, 180-185; positions of: Canada, 184-185; US, 181-184
- CBCIS: see Canadian Broadcasting Corporation International Service
- CHINA (PEOPLE'S REPUBLIC OF; COMMUNIST)
strategic controls on exports to and the "China differential", 1348-1365; Canadian note to US (Apr. 29, 1957) concerning controls and the maintenance of the differential, 1348-1351; Canadian representations to UK concerning, 1356-1358; differences between US and UK concerning, 1352-1353; positions of: France, 1355, 1358; Germany (Federal Republic), 1358-1359; UK, 1352, 1355, 1357-1358, 1362; US, 1358, 1362; possible Canadian compromise proposal, 1354-1356, 1359-1361; UK decision to abandon differential and possible Canadian response, 1364-1365, 1364n, 1365n; US compromise proposal concerning, 1363
- CHINA (REPUBLIC OF; NATIONALIST): see under US (visit of Prime Minister and Secretary of State for External Affairs to White Sulphur Springs - topics discussed)
- COLOMBIA: see under Latin America (export of military aircraft)
- COLOMBO PLAN: see under Indonesia (visit of President and Foreign Minister to Canada), USSR (foreign and domestic policy trends; aid to under-developed countries and competitive co-existence between East and West)
- COLUMBIA RIVER: see also under US (visit of Prime Minister and Secretary of State for External Affairs - topics discussed) development of, 409-452; Advisory Committee on Water Use Policy consideration of Columbia River proposals, 413, 416-418, 425, 427, 433, 439-440, 444; bilateral meetings of officials concerning, 446-452; Canadian memorandum (Mar. 15, 1956) to US in preparation for Eisenhower-St. Laurent meeting and American response (Apr. 25, 1956), 425-433; consultations with British Columbia officials, 433-438; decision to negotiate through diplomatic channels instead of IJC, 413-416, 418-419, 421, 423-425, 445-446; development of alternative energy sources, 411-412; downstream benefits and upstream diversion rights, 411-412, 414-416, 420, 429, 442, 447, 449; draft terms of reference for negotiations, 449-451; IJC consideration of Columbia River proposals and views of General McNaughton, 415, 439-444; proposal for creation of special international tribunal, 414-417; proposal for establishment of Canadian working group to study economic benefits of Columbia River development, 451-452; relation to Boundary Waters Treaty, 412, 416, 420, 422-423, 426, 428, 441, 446, 449, 451
- COMMONWEALTH FINANCE MINISTERS CONFERENCE (1956): see under Western European Integration (European free trade area)
- COMMUNIST PARTY OF THE SOVIET UNION (CPSU): see under USSR (Twentieth Party Congress of the Communist Party of the Soviet Union)
- CONGRESSIONAL SECURITY INVESTIGATIONS
allegations against E.H. Norman, 83-118; death of Norman, 88-89; first Canadian note of protest (Mar. 18, 1957) concerning release of Internal Security Subcommittee (ISS) testimony and US reply (Apr. 9, 1957), 84-86, 101; further allegations against Canadian officials, 95-99, 108-110; possible Canadian courses of action to further release of ISS testimony, 86-88, 92-93; publication of testimony concerning Norman given to ISS, 83-84, 86; repercussions of Norman case for Canada, 107-108; response of ISS to Canadian protest, 103-106; role of US State Department in release of ISS testimony, 89-92; second Canadian note of protest (Apr. 10, 1957) concerning exchange of security information and American consideration of, 94-95, 99-101, 110-118; views of President Eisenhower, 102-103
- CONTINENTAL AIR DEFENCE OF NORTH AMERICA:
see also Alerts, Distant Early Warning Line, Frobisher Bay, Strategic Air Command
atomic weapons, 13-16, 18-28, 38-53, 62-66, 77-78; Canadian approval of overflights of American aircraft armed with MB-1 rockets, 51-53; Canadian consideration of US draft note concerning use of MB-1 rockets (GENIE) over Canada, 62-66; possible amendment of United States Atomic Energy Act to permit Canadians to control US atomic weapons, 18-21, 23, 38, 52; potential role of PJBD in bilateral discussions concerning, 20, 43-44, 66; relation of atomic weapons use to integration of Canada-US forces, 16, 25-27, 38-40, 42-43; texts of letters exchanged between Canada and US