The Three Robes.

I saw a light at the window-nane. On a calm and starry night; And I knew there were busy fingers there, Making a robe so white. And knew that their hearts were light and gay As they sewed the adornings fair; And I knew they had carefully laid away A beautiful wreath they had twined that day,

To tie on her pale brown hair And I knew they had folded senowy veil To clasp on her marble brow; For the one that she loved by her side would stand. And utter the solemn yow.

I saw a light at the window-pane, When the wind went cobbing by. And cold and fitful drifts of rain Fall from the weeping sky. And not a star from its home looked down On the dwellings of men below. And the pale moon shrank from the fearful frown And hid its face in the trailing gown Of the cloude in her grief and wos. And I know there were busy fingers there, Sewing a robe so white

And a snowy wreath for her pale brown hair, Bedewed with the tears of those watchers fair, They had twined by that midnight light.

Away, above, where the sweet-faced stars Are singing creation's hymn, There shineth a glory so pure and bright That the light of the sun is dim. There I see a concourse of angels fair, Preparing a robe so white, Gemming a crown for the pale brown hair Of a beautiful maiden waiting there, To be crowned an angel bright. Then I knew that one home in this world of Had witnessed a sad farawell. And I knew that the angels had welcomed

WITH all the new improvements (Hemmer, Braider, Binder, Feller, Tucker, Corder, Gatherar, &c, &c.,) is the cheapest, and best, and most beautiful of all ma hines for Family sewing and light manufacturing purposes. It makes the interlocked affect (which is alike on both sides,) and has great caracity for sewing all kinds of cloth, and with all kinds of thread. Even leather, as well as the finest makin, may be sewn to perfection on this with all kinds of thread. Even leather, as well as the finest muslin, may be sewn to perfection on this machine. It will use 200 epool cotron as well as No 30 linen thread. What it can do can only be known by reeing the machine tested. The Folding top Case is among the most valuable of the new improvements. It may be opened out as a spacious and substantial table to sustain the work, and when the machine is not in use it may be folded into a box, which protects the working parts of the Machine. There is no other machine to equal the Letter A in simplicity, durability, rapidity and certainty of correct action at all rates of speed. The Family Sewing Machine is fast becoming as popular for family use as Singer $ Co's. Manufacturing Marchines are for manufacturing purposes.

By the Rev. John Locks, Wesleyan Minister of the British Conference. British Conference.

Extract from correspondence in relation to the work. The Rev. B. Firth of Runcorn sats, "It is an admirable Compendium of Theology that ought to be in the hands of all our people, our young people especially. In my opinion it is one of the best and cheapest issues of the religious literature of the day."

best and cheapest issues of the religious literature of the day."

The Rev G. Laird, of Huddersfield writes, "I have carefully perused those chapters which treat upon subjects of vital importance; and the least I can say is that I am very much pleased with your volume. It is full of thought sufficiently condensed, the style of the composition good. It is a book calculated to do good. It hope it will have an extensive circulation among the Preachers and Sabbath School Teachers of the various denominations." The Rev. John Tacker of Richmond says, "I beg to thank you for this great book you have conferred, by the publication of the above work upon a large class of earnest and devoted is bourers in the Lord's vineyard." Those who cannot attend Church AS WELL AS THOSE WHO CAN. Will by pleased and Benefitted by Reading PUNSHON'S SERMONS: BEING THE SELECT LECTURES AND SERMONS OF

Rev. William Moriey Punshon, A. M.,

Of the Weslegan Conference, England. DEV. MR. PUNSHON is one of those brilliant REV. MR. PUNSHON is one of those brilliant I lights which appear on the horizon not oftener than once in a generation. His fervent piety, burning zeal, and chaste but glowing eloquence having stirred as with a mighty impulse the hearts of his hearers throughout England, and given a new importance to the teachings of the Pulpis and the Platform. His Lectures and Sermons, unlike the efforts of most popular preachers, lose none of their interest when divested of the circumstances surrounding their production and delivery. They commend themselves to the reader, as noble efforts of a learned and most cloquent minister, to promote Christian knowledge and develop Christian zeal and influence. They should be read wher zeal and influence. They should be read wher-ever the Sabbath bell chimes or Christian hearts pulsate with hopes of heaven and good will to man. This work should be in every house, and man. I'ms work should be in every house, and read by parents and children every where; its beauty, and light, and influence would be worth ten times its cost.
