

mel

with me!"

"I never wished to harm you, sweet | woman once more covered her face with and noble lady-but him! Oh! he did her tak Mrs. Hunter sank wown softly on he ne a horrible injury!" knees by her side, and bending closely, tenderly over her, said: "Norah, look at me. You are deluded.

me a horrible injury!" "You have suffered a terrible wrong by a cruel wrong. My husband was its fated excentre. I do not defend him He does not defend himself. But he has suffered only less than you. There is a world that rectifies all that has gone wrong in this. You are very near its bourne. Had you passed the happiest, instead of the most unhappy life, it would be all the same to you now. Think of that. But what is esential— what will make all the difference—is what will make all the difference-is the spirit in which you will pass away. Do not be obdurate. Do not be unfor-

'And do not you talk nonsense to me, gentle lady? I cannot change my

"The Lord can change it. Pray to Him.

"I cannot pray. It weer hypocrisy."

"Let me pray, it were hypernay. "Do not mock me, gentle lady." "Heaven forbid. Let me pray with you. Let me kneel by you, and hold your hands in mine, and pray with you. Come! you are not so hard as you seem. You are softening now. God waits to pardon and bless you. Angets hover around your bed to see what you will do."

"One angel does, lady. But concern yourself with your child, lady. Why don't you ask about her?" "Because I am satisfied about my child; I know all that is necessary to be known."

"Ah! you do! Who told you?"

"Ah! you do! Who told you?" "Your words and actions, and circum-stances already known to me." "But-but you do not know all-all?" "I know that in the frenzy of your prief and anger, when you forgot God, and could not hear what your better spirit said, you took away my little cmid, and gave her a new name-called her Sylvia Grove-and gave her to your daughter-in-law, Ellen," said the lady,

'Yes, yes, yes," muttered Nora to herself, with a perplexed look; "and yet yon do not know all!"

"No!" suddenly exclaimed Mrs. Hun-ter, as a spasm of pain convulsed her beautiful countenance; "there is one thing I must ask you: Was Ellen a party to the-I mean, did Ellen know phose child it was, that you committed to her care?'

"No, no-oh, no! she never even sus-pected it, I am sure." "Thank God!" exclaimed Augusta, fervently. "Oh, it would have hurt you more if Ellen had been so wicked? Roor Ellen! she has not been to see me in a long time, it seems to me." Mrs. Hunter did not think proper to inform the sufferer of her daughter-in-law's death. She said: "And now I am satisfied about my

"And now 1 am satisfied about my child. She has grown up a good and beautiful maiden; she has received no harm from the act that I feel sure you have repented. Now think of yourself!" "Oh, yet! I do repent of taking her from you! Toward him I have no re-mentance-nine! But toward you-oh! pentance-nine! But toward you-on! lady, I have always repented-always

"Oh, Norah, repent toward the Lord." "But you-do you forgive me! Oh, Mrs. Hunter! that night, when hurry-ing through the crowd upon the shore, I bore your infant away; I heard your distant shricks of anguish-they pierced two. He did not think proper to com-municate upon that night the strange dis-covery that had been made to him-in fact, he felt strongly opposed to hearing and answering the multitude of ques-tions with which he felt certain the frivolous Lncy would greet the communi-cation. He therefore contented himself with inquiring, in an off-hand manner, after the health and well-being of Mrs. Hunter's little favorite, Sylvia Grove, and having received a satisfactory an-swer, he pleaded fatigue and retired to bed. Very early the next morning he arose, ordered his horse, and hastily swallowed a cup of coffee standing, threw himself into the saddle, and gal-loped rapidly toward Silver Creek, whither we must precede him. CHAPTER XXIV.

CHAPTER XXIV.

A sharp, cold, clear, sparkling morning in December, with the ground covered with snow, with the sun shining daz-zlingly, the creek frozen hard, the squir-rels hopping through the bare woods, and flocks of snowbirds alighting on the fields

"Norah look at me. You are deluded. When you sent your glance so deeply in-to my eyes just now, you read no anger, no resentment there. Look up-meet my eyes egain-read my heart, if you can; you will read nothing there but deep compassion far your lastferings, and earnest desire for your welfare. Norah, lok up. We are children of the same Father. It is your sister that speaks to you." The sufferer uncovered her eyes, and The set words had been written to her by Mrs. Hunter. Yet now she werds till danger, which she could not reason thority. And in what she was about to be way. Sylvia completed her toilet as well as she could alone. Make way. Sylvia completed her toilet as well as she could alone. Make way. Makee way. Make way. Make way. Makee way. Makee way. Makee way. Makee way. M The sufferer uncovered her eyes, and gazed long and wonderingly upon the lady's heavenly countenance, and then she spoke calmly: "I tore your young, nursing baby from your bosom, and left you to years on years of anguish, and yet you do not me! and yet you do not repreach You forgive me, you pity me, you pray for me your countenance beams heaven's own love upon me! Your mercy breaks down my heart! Oh, Mrs. Hunter, I can in part conceive God's mercy by yours!"

God's mercy by yours!" "The Lord's mercy speaks to you through me-the Lord's love inspires me -freely have I received for your sake, and freely, freely give! May it redeem you-may it bless you." "I believe it-I believe it! Oh, Mrs. Hunter! while you hold my hand and talk to me ac and look at me with talk to me so, and look at me, with Heaven calling on me through your eyes, I feel my heart changing, changing in my bosom! Oh, Mrs. Hunter! if you table was set, and where the set of the set could stay by me—if it were possible you could stay by me—I might not then be a upon the lady's face, and she said, in and his long fingers driven through his black, elf locks. He looked little like a with sleeplessness and anxiety. He, too, felt a sense of wrong-doing-felt that it was an unmanly, unrighteous thing to take advantage of the gentle girl, and draw her into a marriage that promised nothing but misery. But he would not forego his selfish passion-no, not though his bride should die heartbroken; he hurled all compunction down. The young people scarcely teuched lost spirit." "I will not leave you. I will remain with you till the last." "What! Mrs. Hunter, will you stay

"Yes-be calm." "You! in this miserable place with

"Yes; for I trust in Heaven to do you good." "But your daughter! I thought you would make instant preparations to hasten to her." "I can wait for that. God, who has he hurled all misgivings from him, and trampled all compunction down. The young people scarcely touched watched over her all these years, and made her such a good and lovely maiden, will keep her safe till I meet her."

"Oh, how you must love her!" "I do-more than all under heaven, except her father." "And now you must long to hasten to

"Be calm—I do not wish to leave you." "Heaven bless you for that! Heaven bless you!" The conversation was interrupted by a low knock at the door. Mrs. Hunter arose and opened it. The nurse stood there with a message from Mr. Hunter, desiring to know when Mrs. Hunter, desiring to know when Mrs. Hunter, would be ready to return to the hotel. The lady said that she would answer the message in person. And, leaving the nurse in her place, she went down the long hall to the end, where Daniel Hunter and the motor stood. near the stowe and a low knock at the door. Mrs. Hunter arrows and opened it. The nurse stood there with a message from Mr. Hunter, starting desiring to know when Mrs. Hunter, falconer asked:

"What," cried Daniel Hunter, starting two know when Mrs. Hunter, set and the book sylvis."
"What," cried Daniel Hunter, starting to know when Mrs. Hunter, set and the book sylvis."
"What," cried Daniel Hunter, starting to know when Mrs. Hunter, set and the book sylvis."
"What," cried Daniel Hunter, starting to know when Mrs. Hunter, set and the book sylvis."
"To not quite know, but I felt as if this were a runaway match."
"Hem-mel Whom are we running and the book of near the store, and have been gone?"
"Wo one, certainly, only it seemed so."
"From Mrs. Hunter, isn't it?"
"So one, certainly, only it seemed so."
"Fou our child-bat Maud! I have alteen adverde and the bould op as the stage office and taken places down to Alleghany county."
"Then go alone, Mr. Hunter. Munch as I long to see our child, I cannot leave a good woman."
"Go to see our child. I cannot leave a good woman."
"Carry my beart to Maud. Tell her in am ot surprised—I always felt means as the Sunday school had been taken alice sour."
"Carry my beart to Maud. Tell her in am ot surprised—I always felt means as the four to gotter. A little while the was my child, hough I did not know it; the opening, services of the Sunday with the opening, services of the Sunday school had been taken by the opening, services of the Sunday school had been taken by the opening, services of the Sunday with the opening, services of the Sunday with rced "Garry my heart to Maud. Tell her the church together. A little while they ince. was my child, though I did not know it; the opening services of the Sunday tell her—but never mind! Speak all school, and then Falconer sent a message tell her—but never mind! Speak all your own love, and she will hear mine." Daniel Hunter pressed her hand, say-what a prominent Toronto citizen says of Ajaz Oil.

The Alax Oil Co., Toronto Ont.

The start off Co., forwhow, one Dear Sirs, This is to express my appreciation for your rheumatism cure. On the advice of a friend I purchased a bottle of star Oil Liniment for rheumatism, and can safely say it certainly is a specific for -sheumatism. I suffered intensely for years and tried nearly every known remedy, also had the advice of the best physicians but without any satisfactory results till I used your Ajar Oil, and now I can safely say. I am completely cured. I give this testimonial entirely unsolicited, so that others similarly afflicted may know ment-Ajax Oil Liniment.

> Yours very truly, Geo. Milligan Mfr. "Arabella" cigars.

old in 8 cs. bottles $2.00 per bottle. Send $2.00 by Money Order or regis letter and you will receive a bottle of Ajax Oil by return mail.

minion Department of Agriculture Branch of the Dairy and Cold Stor-

Some of the recent average yield in the associations organized by the Dairy Division, Ottawa, are: Henryville, Que., 14, Oct., 163 cows average 408 lb. milk, 4.2 test, 17.4 lb.

Warsaw, Ont., 12 Oct. 181 cows aver Warsaw, Ont., 12 Oct. 181 cows aver age 479 lb. milk, 38 test, 183 lb, fat. Pize Grove, Ont., 17 Oct., 136 cows, average 479 lb. milk, 3.8 test, 18.2 lb.

Sheffield, Ont., 17 Oct. 181 cows aver-erage 447 lb. milk, 3.9 test, 17.8 lb.

erage 347 hb. milk, 3.5 test, 113 test fat.
St. Armand, Que., 19 Oct., 134 oows, average 343 hb. milk, 4.5 test, 12.5 lb. fat.
Last and by no means least, North Oxford, Ont., 21 Oct., 111 cows, average 636 hb. milk, 3.6 test, 23.0 hb. fat.
Dixville, Que., 17 Oct., 164 cows, average 416 lb. milk 4.1 test, 17.4 lb. fat.
Chilliwack, B. C., 5 Oct., 153 cows average 563 lb. milk, 4.0 test, 22.6 lb. fat.
Cowichan, B. C., Oct. 14, 173 cows average

The young people scarcely teuched their breakfast, and soon arose from the door; Falconer handed Sylvia in, entered, and took the seat at her side, and drove off. The sparkling splendor of the winter morning—the fresh, brisk, invigorating about of the honest hardy little denizens of the leafless woods, the snowbirds, or the squirrels, that frequently crossed their path—all contributed to enliven the spirits of our young travellers. Then Falconer asked:

via and Falconer-and the clergyman, with his book open, was performing the marriage ceremony. Daniel Hunter hurthis Fair has not been a one-sided one, but has taken place along all lines which conduce to promote the general agricul-ture industry of the Province. Of all Mr. Lovel came down and met the young pair, and shock hands with them, and when Falconer had explained the marriage ceremony. Dather index and ried on; one glimpse he got of his daugh-ter's lovely face, shining as a star in the darkness of her drapery; and with a rush of love and admiration, he ex-claimed to himself: the various departments perhaps none had a more humble beginning than did the seed department, yet no department has had more rapid growth in the degree of intelligent interest taken in the cause

The prizes in this division are given by the Association, while those for the first division are provided out of the gen-eral funds at the disposal of 'he Fair Board. This year a number of special prizes, each valued at about sl00, are of-fered, as follows, viz.: The Holeon Computer prizes, each valued at about slow, at e of-fered, as follows, viz.: The Hodson Cup—A handsome silver cup offered by Mr. F. W. Hodson, ex-live. Stock Commissioner, Teunje build-ing, Toronto, to the member of the Can-adian Seed Growers' Association making the most creditable showing of selected the most creditable showing of selected seed for the whole exhibitions. This cup will not become the permanent property of any grower until won by him three will not become the permanent property of any grower until won by him three times. The Klinck Cup-Given by Prof. L. S. Klinck, Macdonald College, St. Annes, Que, for the best 25 ears of Dent corn, any varlety, grown in Ontario in 1907 under the rules of the Canadian Seed Growers' Association. This beautiful sterling allver cup was especially design-ed by Johnson Brothers, of Montreal. Its lines, while simple, are particularly pleasing, and render the cup graceful and substantial in appearance. The hand-chased stalks, leaves and cars re-presented are a work of art, and com-bine with their artistic qualities an un-usual fidelity to the subject. The cost was $140. This trophy will not become the permanent property of any grower until won by him three times. The Bate Cup-For the best 25 ears of Flint Corn, any variety, grown in On-tario according to the rules of the Cana-dian Seed Growers' Association, Mr. T. C. Bate, of H. N. Bate & Co., Getawa, will give a cup annually until three cups have been won by the same grower, when such grower will receive, without fur-ther competition, a beautiful trophy as a grand sweepstakes prize. The Steele, Briggs Trophy-A trophy valued at $100, given by the Steele, Briggs Seed Co., Townto, for the best bushel of alske clover seed of highest Government standard in respect to pur-ty and germination, grown by the ex-hibitor.

The above trophy will not become the permanent property of any grewer until won by him three times. Between ex-

The above trophy will not become the permanent property of any grower until won by him three times. Between ex-hibitions each trophy may be held by the last winner until permanently won. The donaters of these valuable tro-phies deserve a great deal of credit for the interest they have taken in the work and for the public spirit flap, have shown, and it is to be hoped that the example which they have set may be fol-lowed by others equally interested in the public good. Session on Seeds-On Dee, 11, begin-ning at 10 a. m. a session dealing with the problems of errop raising and of suc-cessful seed growing will be held in the lecture room of the Fair building. The programme is as follows: Wedneeday, Dec. 11, a. m. Seeds-Address, "The Im-provement of Ontario's Best Pasture Orops," by C. A. Zavits, B. S. A., pro-fessor of field husbandry, O. A. C., Guelph. Address, "Advantages of the Special Seed Plot as a Source of Seed," by John McCallum, Shakespeare. Ad-dresss, "Hill Selection of Seed Potatoes," by T. G. Raynor, B. E. A., Ontario Re-presentative Seed Branch Ottawa. by T. G. Raynor, B. S. A., Ontario Representative Seed Branch, Ottawa.

Brains and Bedslats.

(From the Chicago Inter-Ocean, Nov. 21.) It is impossible to enumerate all the different kinds of blithering idiots whe are running around just now with their mouths open, but here are a few of mouths open, but matches them: The man who regards it as "only a flurry in Wall street." The man who asks: "Do you think we're going to have a panio!" The man who says that "it has cleared the theorem has " the atmosphere." The man who says "it's looking better" since those "crooked banks" shut up. The man who argues that those "New Fork swindlers" ruined themselves to "get even with Roosevelt." "The man who is sure that "Morgan, Rockefeller and Harriman just did it to scare Teddy.

The man who suspects a "bank con spiracy" to hoard currency and "squeeze up all," while "they buy cheap stocks with our money." The man with the amethyst ring and nickel-headed came who announces every-where that "they can't bluff Teddy," and "ha's got the Wall street gamblers age Commissioner.

FARGARDEN

however, just as he was growing very impatient, Aunt Moll appeared at the average 563 ib. milk, 4.0 test, 22. 6 lb. fat. Cowichan, B. C., Oct. 14, 173 cows aver-are 699 lb. milk, 4.3 test, 51.5 lb. fat. One herd of 10 cows has an average of 819 lb. milk. Bagotville, Que., Oct. 21.-142 cows aver-are 474 kb. milk, 4.3 test, 70.3 lb. fat. Best individual yield 340 lb. milk. Woodburn, Ont., Oct. 25.-104 cows aver-are 401 lb. milk, 4.2 test, 17.2 lb. fat. One herd of 18 cows averages only 835 lb. East and West Oxford, Oct. 37.-106 cows average 621 lb. milk, 3.5 test, 22.1 lb. fat. One herd of 22 cows averages 632 lb. milk. Hatley Centre, Que., Oct. 37.-106 cows average 631 lb. milk, 3.5 test, 2.2.1 lb. fat. With butter fat al 30c per pound, these cows are returning $2.40 each less to their owners than at East and West Oxford during one month. Where is the margin of profit? Rockford, Ont., Oct. 30.-101 cows average 641 lb. milk, 3.3 test, 21.2 lb. fat. In one herd of 20 cows the average yield is 385.lb. milk. St. Edwidge, Que., Nov. 3.-Furnishes an-herd of 20 cows the average yield is 535.1D. milk. BY. Edwidge, Que., Nov. 3.—Furnishes an-other contrast, 149 cows average 343 Ib. milk, 44 test, 15.2 lb. Tat. Highest yield of any one cow is 770 lb. milk. New Giasgow, P. E. I., Oct. 31.—123 cows average 422 lb. milk, 16.1 bb. fat. Spring Creek, Ont., Nov. 1.—191 cows aver-age 478 lb. milk, 20.4 lb. fat. Heet herd aver-age, 35 cows, 852 lb. milk, 30.8 lb. fat. Jongusterss, Que., Nov. 6.—106 cows aver-age 32 lb. milk, 40 test, 15.9 lb. fat. The largeet herd of 14 cows average 231 lb milk. Cuilden, Onta, Nov. 6.—106 cows average 497 lb. milk, 40 test, 50.3 lb. fat. One herd of 60 cows averages 539 lb. milk, 23.7 lb. fat.

DODDS

Junis

KIDNEY EUMATISM

my ear-they were echoed from heart! I have heard them ever since. have heard them in my solitude. I have heard them in the night; they have startled me from my sleep! Had I murdered yoù, lady, my sufferings could not have been greater! But I would not give up my vengeance. And I could not bear remorse. And between them I maddened!" And I

She paused and covered her haggard he paused and covered her fingers. And after a few minutes she removed her hands, and her sunken eyes blazed an altered voice:

"I am dving, yet I cannot ask the Lord't pardon until I have obtaimed and yours I know I shall neevr It is useless to speak of it. Genyours, a the and noble as you are, you could not grant it, even if you would. I know by my own heart that it is impossible. For, as I cannot cease to loathe him who refused to spare my son, I feel that you cannot choose but hate me, who bereaved you of your little child!"

d you of your little cuid! with a shuddering sigh that had brought him down in advance of the her whole frame, the wretched others, who would follow in a day or shook her whole frame, the wretched is needed.

helped by its use.

Nursing baby?

ment in easily digested form.

ტტტ*ტტტტ*ტტტტტტტტტტტტ*

It's a heavy strain on mother.

ing: "I understand you. I feel all that you would have me say from yot?" And then they talked over some little business that had brought them thither, he looked surprised, amused, and turned temporary arrangements, and took leave of each other. Mrs. Hunter returned to he looked singlised, and see and control that such a quizzical glance upon Sylvia that the maiden blushed and dropper her eyes. "Yes, certainly," he said, "always happy to make others happy. Oh, by the way, have you seen Mr. Hunter this pray with her patient, and Daniel Hunter, leaving the young people for the pre-sent at the hotel, threw himself into the morning sent at the hotel, threw nimself into the stage coach and was rattled down to Alleghany county as fast as the old-fashioned vehicle could convey him. It was hate Saturday evening when he arrived at Howlet Hall, and much too "Mr. Hunter!" exclaimed Sylvia, with the light of joy springing to her eyes. "Mr. Hunter!" growled Falconer, grinding his teeth in rage and sorrow. late for him to think of visiting Silver Creek that night. He found his young relatives and their little nestlings well, and the former, in expectation of his "Yes, young folks. Daniel Hunter! He reached Howlet Hall last night, and-" "Has Mrs. Hunter come?" inquired Sylvia eagerly interrupting him. "No, my dear, Mrs. Hunter remains for the present in Baltimore. Mr. Hunter whole party, and not a little disappointed at seeing him alone. He satisfied them, came down alone on very important bus-iness, and I fancy his business lies with one of you, for this morning, before any of us were out of bed, he ordered however, by saying that urgent business his horse and set out for Silver Creek. And you have not seen him. Surprising!" "We left very early, sir. Was Mrs. Hunter well, sir!" days." "Will you be good enough sir, to pro-deep, "By ceed with the business that brought us here?" asked Falconer, impatiently. ' Certainly-certainly- but 'Certainly-certainly-certainly -where are your attendants? Have you no friends with you?" "Is that a necessary form, sir?" asked the youth, coldly. "No-no-not in this case; there are some half-dozen people just passed us, and seated themselves in their pews; and seated themselves in their pews; they will witness the rites. Follow me!" And Mr. Lovel preceded the young cou-ple up the aisle, entered within the rail-ing of the altar, and took his stand in front of the reading desk. Sylvia and Falconer knelt before him. The people that were in the church The people that were in the church were roused up at this sight; a wedding is always interesting, especially an impromptu one in a church; they were on the qui vive, and pricked up their ears for the words of the minister, and the responses of the parties, and—but we must leave them and go back an hour

When Daniel Hunter left Howlet Hall, fact is," he cried. "I never vet met he rode on at a bris' neve through the man who was the at it muse?"

"Beautiful, beautiful, beautiful! She is beautiful as-her mother!" They were all too absorbed to notice for the far-sightedness of the live stock his quick approach. The minister was bending closely over them. Falconer held men of the Province, who are quite cognizant of the fact that while the live nizant of the fact that while the lave stock industry of the country is relative-ly the most important, yet the success of this industry really depends upon our ability to successfully grow suitable and adequate grain and fodder crops. The losses that arise from sowing bending closely over them. Factorer here her left hand, and with the wedding ring held on her finger, was repeating, af-ter the minister, the words of the ritual: "With this ring this ring I thee wed-"With this ring the redow with all my worldly goods I thee endow in the name of the____"

"Hold! I forbid the marriage!" exclaimed Daniel Hunter, stepping up. The clergyman looked up in amaze-ment, to see Mr. Hunter there, and to hear him prohibit the ceremony. Sylvia started, looked around, recog same down alone on very important bus-ness, and I fancy his business lies with one of you, for this morning, before is horse and set out for Silver Creek. "We left very early, sir. Was Mrs. unter well. sir?" "Very well. She will be down in a few "State of the set designed to assist in alleviating the prevailing difficulties, has an important place to fill. This department contains two general divisions. One division prowood general atvisions. One atvision pro-vides accommodation for exhibits of or-dinary farm seeds, which has not receiv-ed any particular attention apart from what any up-to-date, intelligent grower would aim to give. The other division provides for the exhibition of "specially calcated seed which has hen grown and circle flaming around his darkened eyes. "By what right, sir?" he asked, in a stern. husky voice.

selected seed, which has been grown and selected according to the regulations of the Ganadian Seed Growers' Association. "By the holiest in nature, young man -a father's right," answered Daniel Hun-This latter exhibition is designed chiefly to give publicity to the work which the various growers are doing by way of ap-plying improved methods of seed-growing. composed v.

ter, composedly. Then addressing the meiden, he said: "Come to me, Maud Hunter. Come to me, my dear child, I am your father."

(To be continued.)

Many years ago a certain earl gave a dinner in honor of a great Highland chief, who rarely came down from the hills. Though there were many illustrious persons at this dinner, the proud Highlander seemed none too well pleased. In fact, he was curt and haughty with the grandest. When the coffee came on, the host, leading his Highland cashe on, the nost, itaking in figures to pand down the great hall, asked him what he thought of the company. "Och," said the chieftain, "they're nae bad. They're nae bad chiels." Then he frowned, and proudly swelling out his broad chest, struck it a blow "But the fact is" he frid "I never yet met a ing." The man who proclaims that "it helps the situation" to "smash the rotten banks," and that "Teddy's got the fin-ance villains on the run."

The man who borrows $10 and then tells you "it'll be all right in a few days, because there's just as much money in the country as there ever was." The man who sits at the pie counter and tells everybody that it is a "good which it champions. This speaks well thing to "small every back in the coun-try," and save the "common people" from "slavery" to the "money jower." The man who says "it had to come anyhow," we "ere going too fast"; "Roosevelt is the greatest President we ever had," and "ought to have a third term". "as may more as he wreats term" or "as many more as he wants." Perhaps these men have brains, but they sound as if they had only predi-gested bedslats under their hair. mixed and inferior grains and the dan-ger from sowing weed seeds are soming to be recognized more and more such year, and as a result the seed depart-ment at the above Fair, as an institution

How have they lived all these years in a great city without being run over by the cars? The Lord only knows.

Chemistry and Diamonds.

It has already been established that the diamonds said to have been manu-factured by chemistry were not dia-monds at all. Two members of the com-mittee deputed by the Academy of Sci-ence to subject the crystals to a search ence to subject the crystals to a search ing test agree in this. They were bril-liant and sparkling, but could not, either mineralogically or chemically, be classed as diamonds. They melted at 200 de-grees that is, in the flame of a candle. One of the examiners thinks the material may have been naphthaline.

Nature's Fairy Work. The largest and most beautiful of the underground caves of Germany has, it is said, just been discovered while blasting a calcareous quarry near Aattendorn in Westphalia. There is a magnificent hall hung with the most beautiful and delicate stalacite curtains as white an snow, and in parts not even a centimetre thick, some of them shining with all the colors of the rainbow. The stalagmites are also very beautiful. The "side chapels," niches and choirs number from fifty to sixty, and they are nearly all of im-maculate whiteness.

Britain's Lord Chancellor, Lord Lore-burn, is now in Canada. This is the first occasion on which a Lord Conneellor has left the United T

Scott's Emulsion contains the greatest possible amount of nourish-Mother and baby are wonderfully

ALL DRUGGISTS: 50c. AND $1.00 0000000000000000000000

Her system is called upon to supply

