

the application for a certificate of payment and the usual fees upon the said letters patent for the remainder of the term of eighteen years from the date thereof, and may grant and issue to the said Thomas Robertson the certificate of payment of fees provided by The Patent Act, and an extension of the period of the duration of the said letters patent to the full term of eighteen years in as full and ample a manner as if application therefor had been duly made within six years from the date of the issue of the said letters patent. 5