

COUNCIL CANDIDATES

HARRY RHUDE

For President

Harry Rhude...

After four years in the R.C.A.F., three tours of operations as a flying Officer, and a D.F.C., Harry returned to Dal in 1945 in the Faculty of Arts and Science. In his first year in Arts Harry worked on the Gazette, was captain of the debating team that won the Bennett Shield, and, in his second year was elected Arts and Science representative on the Council. That year he won a Wings Club Scholarship, and was elected Vice-President of the Council, and has capably fulfilled this position this year. Now, in his first year of Law, married, Harry offers his experience and ability as a candidate for the Presidency of the Students' Council.

The Law Society offers

Conference at Xmas, and is Maritime Representative on its national Executive. This year he is the Law representative on the Council. Now in his second year of Law, Bill offers his excellent qualifications for the position of Vice-President.

A Progressive Policy On Important Issues...

The following points were arrived at after a close study of groundwork done by the present Council in some of the matters concerned; Harry and Bill intend that their policy shall be a continuation of what the students have shown to be their wishes this year, and have governed their platform accordingly. As well as completing the groundwork of this year's Council, there are other points put forward for the consideration of the students.

1. More efficient and businesslike administration including
 - (a) strict adherence to authorized budgets,

LAW IN INTERFAC

Debating

by Neil McKelvey

The great triumph of the year was the win that Messrs. Cox and Giles achieved over Osgoode Hall this month. This was the second of yearly verbal battles between Canada's two greatest Law Schools. Using some very ingenious methods of debate, the Dal boys were able to convince the three judges from the "Queen City" that Communism should not be outlawed in Canada. Next year the Toronto boys will come east to debate.

This year the Law School had six debating teams in the interfaculty field, and at the time of writing there are three teams out of the four who are left are Law school teams. When you read this the percentage will perhaps be higher.

Sports

by Vince Morrison

A grimy, weary band of Law students trudged off the frozen turf and stone of the Dalhousie gridiron last November with the light of victory in their eyes. Having parked their false teeth and arch supports on the sidelines, Law's irrepressible "Old Men" had just walked off with the interfaculty football title. A gallant, but bewildered Engineers' thirteen, who had made premature victory plans, left the field a soundly beaten team, unable to stem the relentless play of the legal Tigers.

The spirit displayed by that fighting rugby team has been typical of the Law School's teams in interfaculty Sport this year. Large turnouts and terrific enthusiasm have been the order of the day for the legal lights from the Forrest Building.

Did You Know...

One of the dignitaries of the Chancery in England is the Master of the Rolls. In Dean Sydney Smith's time the youngest member of the faculty was awarded this title, in the good, old legal tradition. His installment in office, accompanied by a proper "Seating" ceremony, bestowed upon the new M.R. the duties of informing the janitor as to when "rolls" were needed below.

Generous in victory, gallant in defeat, the Law hockey team, though not leading the interfaculty hockey league, is battling for that position with the leaders. No team has beaten this scrappy aggregation without first being forced to the limit; never sure of victory till the final bell sounded. With the highest scoring team in the interfaculty league, the Law School can well be proud of its hockey representatives.

THE MOCK PARLIAMENT

by Colin Smith

For several years it has been the practice of the Dalhousie Law School to hold annual Mock Parliaments. This year with all the pomp and ceremony the attend the opening of the Federal House of Parliament at Ottawa, "our" Governor-General will read the speech from the throne and once again our loyal supporter, Mr. Leonard W. Frazer, K.C., will act as Speaker of the Commons. We are grateful to Mr. H. L. Roper and to the firm he represents for the very kind donation of a Mace to our Parliament. It will be carried into the Commons by the Sergeant at Arms, and together with the formalities gone through by the Gentleman Usher of the Black Rod a very fitting background for the opening night will be obtained.

That students and indeed all people should gather together and become familiar with the art of governing themselves was exactly what men like Joseph Howe had in mind when they first gave Canada her first responsible government one hundred years ago. After last year's very successful Mock Parliament we were all delighted to see what a keen interest Dalhousie students took in the summer in the by-election which sent Mr. John Dickey to Ottawa. At that time students went out and "got their feet wet," as it were, in becoming familiar with the machinery of democracy that has been established for us. Daily they are beginning to realize that the duty to serve one's country in peacetime is as essential as it was in wartime.

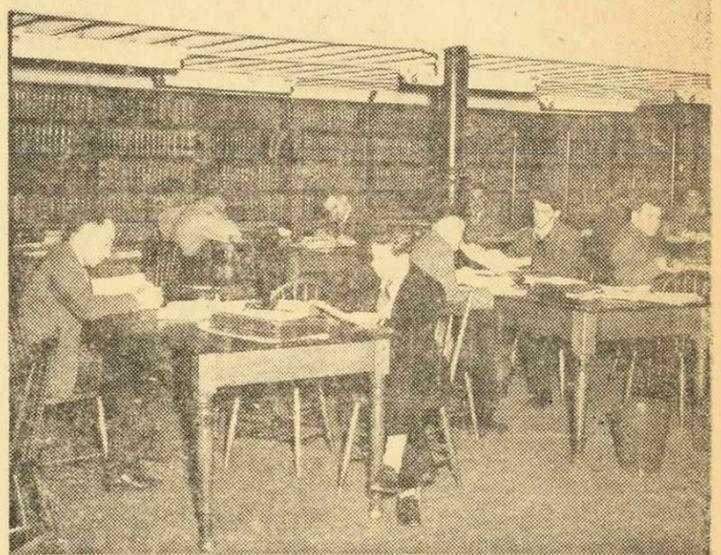

The Prime Minister elect is Mr. Alec J. MacIntosh of Stellarton representing the "Liberals;" Mr. Mark Yeoman of the "Progressive Conservatives" is the Leader of His Majesty's Loyal Opposition while the "C.C.F." leader is Mr. Gordon Black. And in order to round out the federal picture more clearly the "Social Credit" group will be headed by Mr. C. Henderson Smith.

We feel justified in predicting that this year's Cabinet is one of the most brilliant ever selected. It is composed of the following students:-

E. N. McKelvey	Finance;	G. S. Hawkins
Trade and Commerce;	J. W. E. Mingo	Justice;
J. B. Ballem	Agriculture	A. M. Mears
National Affairs;	Earle Urquhart	Labour and Vets
Affairs	Gordon Hart	Health and Welfare;
G. M. Harquail	Transport and Fisheries	Harry Rhude
Mines and Resources.

Mr. Harris MacDonald will be the mover speech from the throne while Mr. Hinton will second the motion. Dean V. C. MacDonald and Professors Hancock, Milner and Feeney will be in attendance.

Law Library

As exams draw near, the boys frequent the library more and more. The Dal Law Library is the largest of its kind in the Maritimes, with about 20,000 volumes worth over $15,000.
