

many, of the precious
Sons we lose: men,
like this & who were
to do so much, have been taken from us)
placed her hopes & trust on you - Then I later went into a Church in Boston one day & picked up this Call to Prayer & so wished our people & our beloved Canada
had a leader who knew just how to apply & organize
"Bind up the wounds of Society & make us whole" & you so young & strong, a man came into my vision again

My dear Mr King

Do you remember?

I wonder my saying to you that when I read for the first time these lines of Drenham
you came into my vision - you said you knew most of this verses perhaps you've not yet read these & perhaps too the knowledge that one poor soul at any rate who feels so terribly
