C 75232

17th. October, 1923.

Dear Mr. Mackenzie King,

I have purposely not called round to pay my respects to you as I knew it was kindness to leave you alone as you must have been inundated with callers.

I thought you might just like to know the procedure for our banquet on November 6th.

A very brief speech of six or seven minutes will be made by our chairman, Sir Ernest Birch, then The Prince of Wales will speak giving the toast of the Dominions and India, and it is suggested that you and Mr. Bruce should reply; ending up with a speech from the representative of India.

Kind regards,
Yours sincerely,

The Rt. Hon., W. L. Mackenzie King, M.P.,
Ritz Hotel,
Piccadilly, W. 1.
