Ottawa, September 18th, 1926

My dear Colonel:

I hasten to thank you for your very kind letter which you handed me to-day. Better far lose the election than lose the good opinion of one's friends.

It is sufficient to know that everyone stood up to his duty and gave the best that was in him.

Yours very truly,

Colonel H. C. Osborne,
Baly Avenue,
Ottawa.
