December 22, 1923.

Dear Mr. Gobeil:

I have your letter of 16th.

Naturally I feel a very keen interest in all those who went through the very difficult times to which you refer, because I consider that in the struggles of those years they were companions-in-arms with myself, and, in your Province particularly, displayed a courage much greater than I was called upon to present.

It will be a great pleasure for me to do anything I can on your behalf, but I must say in frankness that I am not consulted as to Quebec Judgeships, nor for that matter as to Ontario Judgeships. My time is fully occupied here, and it is only good fortune if I am able to be present when these decisions are made. I have not been at a meeting of the Cabinet since May. I shall, however, see what it is possible for me to do and am writing today.

Yours very truly,

Mr. Jules Gobeil,
Baie St. Paul,
Quebec, P. Q.
