

In the year of 1888, the said Agnes Kawmin has mortgaged the stone house to Amos Prochiatka for $500 for a year from 1889 to 1891 Agnes Kawmin has paid Amos Prochiatka the sum of $450 and she still owes him over $400. The mortgage was drawn by a Public Notary; but at the expiration of one year the mortgage continued, and no new one was made.

The heirs of Agnes Kawmin wish to know whether Amos Kawmin, widow of Agnes Kawmin, has a legal right to mortgage
