

1917

May 12, 1917

I have to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of the 7th instant, in which you refer to the discharge of your son, the name, from the Quebec River Industrial School, in order to assist you with your farm work.

In reply I beg to say that inquiries are being made from the Principal of the school regarding your request for the discharge of your son from the school in order to assist you with your farm work.

Very respectfully,
Lowther
