

THE PROSPECT OF SPRING.

THE Snow-drop marks the early tints of Spring,
And soon the plummy heralds of the year,
Nestling, shall speak the cheerful season near,
And vocal melodies in concert sing.

Again with genial glow the nymphs
shall charm,
The whisp'ring groves with leafy green be hung;
Love's potent impulse youthful bo-soms 'larm,
And soft persuasion dwell upon each tongue.
