

It Will Soon Be Too Late !

Thousands of our readers have already taken advantage of our Special Christmas bargain offer and renewed their subscription for two or three years. There is still time for you to attend to this and get Farm and Dairy for:

Two Years
for $1.50

Three Years
for $2.00

No matter when your renewal is due, whether now or several months from now—send in $1.50 or $2.00 during December and we will extend your subscription for two years, or three years, from whatever date it becomes due.

This is your one chance during the year to get Farm and Dairy at a cut price. The offer expires on December 31st. Send in your renewal promptly.

DO IT NOW!

SOLVING THE XMAS GIFT PROBLEM
Send Farm and Dairy to your friend. It is a welcome Christmas gift that repeats every week throughout the year.

land cost
rain?
p was win-
n. This is against the
idered that I pay for a iment, how-
or the clip
f the sheep
ed no hay?
ends, but
And then if
othing else
the sheep
ly for most urnips were
therefore,
need during
much that
e dogs and
toll, were
the original
were older
depreciated.
t be counted
ising. It is t year the
value $400.
cterized the
i whn "work
riments car-
Experimental
re cited are
One is char-
n of the East
inism of the back up the
more sheep
; whether or
ft after they labor, feed
If sheep will
o know. If our eyes with profits. It is Government
are certainly ake too much
). We would change.—"Ox-
anks
Dairy.—I am
r placing pic-
of "Homes
r Society, in d directly by
so.
paper seems
have had ap-
Provinces beer, the results
ctory as the
been sent to
E.
better results
from our ad-
various local
or your kind-
sly. C. A. Win-
Children's Aid
Stability
Joseph Winter
E. G. E. Day,
age high price
on to the man
re ready, and
old, finds the
ed States the d against this
rest when the
all, and when
down. That extremely high
nd unduly low
o guarantee of Day, "but still
o the demand is hops. They critic grounds
y are the only
t."