July 4th, with Boston and Harvard pulling against one another for the Grand Challenge—a more than ample revenge for the loss of the polo cup— for it has long been the boast of Eng-lishmen that while their track athletes might be beaten by the U. S. A. ama-teurs their oarsmen were supreme. They were, but they are not. By the elimination of the Winnipeg eight by Harvard and Dibble by the Italian giant, Sinigagila, Canadians may stand by and watch assured that they have done their best.

Bruce Evans defeated T. B. Reith in the semi-finals of the Canadian solf championship contest yesterday. As Geo. S. Lyon, the veteran, defeated Fritz Martin, the title now lies between the theorem of the set o Hamilton man and the America The Reith-Evans game will long be remembered in Ottawa as one of the most keenly contested matches ever seen on the course. Both men showed great nerve, Reith in overcoming a long head obtained in the first round by Evans and the American in coming back on the 38th, after the Beacons-field man had overtaken him at the 36th and halved the 37th.
