London Fence

THOR, (Greek God of Thunder and Friend of Man.)
To the Farmers of Canada.

Know ye, that for this poor substitute on which my hand doth rest, Thinking 't would less time require to build, Its poor deluded owner paid a price full double what would purchase, Even same weight and length of peerless "London"—coiled, not kinked. Yet, well 'tis known that strand on strand, each by itself well stretched Of famous "London" spring steel—coiled, not kinked, Much stronger makes the fence, nor longer take they, Ever to make tight or stretch than doth this flimsy, ready-woven—kinked, not coiled.

The weaving later may be done, at leisure, full fifty rods per day or more. And all neat, strong, symmetrical, and pleasing to the eye—coiled, not kinked
