

DE LAVAL SEPARATORS.

The World's Best.

Others are following a long way back, making use in one form or another of old De Laval patents abandoned by "The De Laval Separator Co." from time to time on their march of progress.

DE LAVAL MEANS UP-TO-DATE, and it doesn't cost any more to be up-to-date in cream separators than to be behind the times.

The pamphlet, "Be Your Own Judge," is interesting. Ask us for it.

TRADE NOTES.

Over in the mosquito country an old farmer died, says Lippincott's Magazine. He was reputed to be rich. After his death, however, it was found that he died penniless. His will was very brief. It ran as follows:

"In the name of God, amen. There's only one thing I leave. I leave the earth. My relatives have always wanted that. They can have it. Bill L. Indner."

A Western rancher was noted for his mendacity. It was impossible to believe him, impossible to trust him. He got, finally, in the toils of the law, and at his trial he pleaded guilty.

He did well to plead guilty, for the case against him was strong and irrefutable. Nevertheless the jury in its verdict declared him innocent.

The Judge was thunderstruck at this. "Innocent?" he said. "Innocent?" But the man himself pleads guilty! "We know it, your Honor," said the foreman of the jury, "but he's such a liar that we can't believe him."

One day a certain professor of mathematics at O. University prepared to set out on a short journey on horseback. He was an absent-minded man, and while saddling the animal was thinking out some intricate problem. Some students stood near and watched him abstractedly place the saddle on hind part before.

"Oh, professor!" exclaimed one of the group, "you are putting the wrong end of your saddle foremost."

"Young man," replied the professor, with some tartness, "you are entirely too smart. How do you know it is wrong when I have not yet told you in which direction I intend to go?"

Senator Spooner tells of a lawyer in Wisconsin who had been retained by a farmer to prosecute a suit against a neighbor relative to the title to a strip of land running between their respective farms.

It appears that during a conversation as to the status of the suit the first-mentioned farmer suggested to his attorney that it might be a good idea to send the presiding judge a couple of fine turkeys.

"Dear me!" exclaimed the counsel, "that would never do, my man! You would be sure to lose your suit!"

Nothing more was said on the subject. The case came up, was tried, and judgment was rendered in the plaintiff's favor. When the news was brought to him the farmer expressed his satisfaction, adding: "I sent him the turkeys!"

Too astonished at the man's temerity to say anything, the lawyer merely stared at his client.

"Yes," chuckled the farmer, "I sent him the turkeys, but I sent them in my opponent's name!"

A muscular Irishman recently strolled into the civil service examination room in the city hall where candidates for the police force are put to a physical test.

"Strip," ordered Dr. Agnew, police surgeon.

"What's that," answered the uninitiated.

"Get your clothes off; be quick about it," said the doctor.

The Irishman disrobed and permitted the doctor to measure his chest and legs and pound his back.

"Hop over this bar," ordered the doctor.

The man did his best, landing on his back.

"Now double up your knees and touch the floor with your hands."

He sprawled, face downward, on the floor. He was indignant, but kept silent.

"Jump under the cold shower," ordered the doctor.

"Sure, that's funny," muttered the applicant.

"Now run around the room ten times to test your heart and wind," directed the doctor.

The candidate rebelled.

"I'll not. I'll stay single."

The doctor looked surprised.

"What's more," continued the Irishman, "I don't see what all this fussing has got to do with a marriage license."

"He had strayed into the wrong bureau. Later he got a license, giving the name of Joseph McGlynn."

Sore Shoulders
