THE DRAB SHELL
is essentially a gentle- man's summer hat. It's an easy fitting hat, light in weight, very becom- ing, very cool and com- fortable and eminently correct for week-day wear, for business, for promenade, for driving; and they are particular- ly in good taste at races tournaments, and gala occasions of any kind. The peculiar drab shade is so generally becoming that while some faces look best in dark hats and others in light, all look well in Drab Shells. The latest importations of these stylish hats are shown at
