VICTORY LOAN.

Montreal, Oct. 22.—The campaign for the war victory loan of $150,000,000 was launched at a largely attended meeting in St. Lambert town hall, Chambly county, on Saturday night when President W. Williams of the South Shore Board of Trade announced that this was the first meeting in Canada held in behalf of the loan. Chief among the speakers were J. H. Rainville, late M.P. for Chambly-Verocheres, and Deputy Speaker of the House of and Deputy Speaker of the House of Commons, and the Hon. Walter Mitchell, Provincial Treasurer of

E. Ranger and E. C. Alford, who are organizing the seven counties on the South Shore for the loan, ex-plained the reasons for the loan and the method to be followed in raising it. Officers were elected for the county organization,
