Kippling Rhymes

By Walt Mason. THE KAISER.

The kaiser makes me wear that, afire, taste like a shoe or rub ber tire. Oh, once I always bough the best; I had an ample treasure and sent to Lunnon for my boots; Paris triumph was my hat; the kaiser put a stop to that. I buy my things in pawnshops now; a battered derby shades my brow; a suit mohair drapes my frame—the han ed old war lord is to blame. I use to scan the bill of fare and choo the richest viands there; a big plank Building, Hours 9 to 6. Evenings

WAS SUNK BY SUB. Amsterdam, Aug. 9 .- The Dutch shipping council announces after an investigation, it has been found that the Dutch cross-channe mail steamboat Koeningen Regent was struck by a torpedo early i June. No parts of the torpedo were found, it is added, and evidence of the nationality of the submarine therefore, is lacking.

The Koeningen Regentes was sunl in the North Sea off the English coast on June 6. The captain in sisted that the ship had been tor pedoed and much feeling was arous ed in Holland against Germany Berlin denied the sinking and Ger man newspapers sought to blam Great Britain for the loss of th vessel. This charge, however, was denied fully by the British Admiralty. Four firemen were drowned when the vessel went down.
