

OPENING OF THE DAWSON CLUB.

Glasses Clinked and All Went Merry as a Marriage Bell.

Representative Gathering of Business and Professional Men at the New Club Rooms—An Evening of Pure Enjoyment.

The Dawson Club was formally declared open on Monday evening and a large party of members and their friends gathered to celebrate the occasion with music and song.

It was some two months ago that the first effort was made toward forming a social organization among Dawson's business men.

It has been decided to admit members for some time yet on the same terms granted the original signers and all applications for membership will be considered by the committee on management at their regular weekly meeting which occurs every Tuesday evening.

The club rooms occupy a floor space 50x60 feet. A well-equipped bar, presided over by stewards Fletcher and Smith, occupies one corner of the club room.

The officers of the association are as follows: Honorary president, Col. Steele; president, H. C. Lisle; vice-presidents, Messrs. Ritchie and Hamill; secretary-treasurer, W. Galpin; committee on management, Messrs. Vernon, Micklejohn, Dunn, Stewart, McDonald, Cunningham and Clark.

Commissioner Ogilvie and Consul-General McCook hold the distinction of being the only honorary members yet selected.

The success of Monday night's entertainment is largely due to the indefatigable efforts of the reception committee—Messrs. Mccauley, Galpin, Yeamans and Ritchie.

President Lisle was master of ceremonies and the program was as follows:

- First: Harbor Watch Ahoy—Messrs. Story and Fishaven. Song: They All Love Jack—Mr. Ritchie. Song: Tomorrow Will be Friday—Mr. Chisholm. Song: The Skipper—Mr. Micklejohn. Original Stories and Poems—Captain Jack Crawford. Song: On the Road to Mandelay—Capt. Ogilvie. Song: The Sweetest Story Ever Told—Mr. Erhart. Song: True Till Death—Mr. Robertson. Banjo Solo: Garden City Walizes—Mr. George. Song: The Wolf—Mr. Story. Song: Farewell My Own True Love—Mr. A. J. Thomas. Song: with banjo accompaniment—Mr. Hooley. Song: Killdeer—Mr. Armitage. Song: The Admiral Brave—Dr. McDonald. Song: Father O'Flynn—Dr. Dunn. Ballads: Mr. George Nobles. Piano Solo: Mr. Blank.

The program was long and many numbers were entered, but there were no delays and when it was gone over it was recommenced a second time, the gentlemen choosing their songs or having them chosen by friends.

The Old River Bed.

Reading your paper this morning I saw an article asking the opinion of men of experience as to the source of the gold of the Klondike mining district. I crossed the Great American desert and plains in 1861 and was fortunate enough to stop at Virginia, Nev., where the great Comstock mines were located.

When you note the fact that at all points where the different pups and gulches cut this channel immediately below the mouth of these gulches claims have proven for the best in placer gold, showing that they have had their source in the old channel above.

were formed satisfactorily to myself on my second trip to a point near 42 Eldorado, at which place I spent one week looking over the general formation of French Hill and surrounding country.

DAWSON, Oct. 28, 1898. JAMES JACOBY, M. E.

For the Outside.

E. W. Sandison left for the outside on Tuesday with a large batch of private mail gathered from the creeks and from town.

Yukon Freighters' Association.

At a meeting of local freighters held on Monday evening at the Yukon hotel the Yukon Freighter's Association was organized.

The officers of the association are president, Cal. Brosius; secretary, F. W. Spencer; treasurer, Jos. Edge.

Another meeting has been called for Friday night at the Yukon hotel, at which time the organization will be perfected.

PERSONALS.

Howard Hazard has severed his connection with the Low as steward, and with W. J. Bryant is in town for the winter.

Mark Bailey, Jr., located on 71 Eldorado, is in town for a few days. He will have his winter's outfit freighted to the claim in a few days.

Alfred Johnson, of the Bond party from Bronck, Mass., was taken to the hospital last Sunday suffering from typhoid fever.

Mr. J. M. Piekol and his partner, Mr. Matthews, will be located for the winter on Sulphur. They are engaged at the present time in building a cabin, but they expect to have it completed and ready for occupancy within a very short time.

John King, whose house was burned in the recent fire feels very grateful to a stranger who saved his watch and purse. King says that during the excitement a gold watch and purse the combined value of which was more than $200, were left in the burning building.
