SHE USED ONLY THE NATURAL CURE

Nova Scotia Woman Was Relieved of Her Heart Disease.

Made Her Kidneys Right with Dodd's Kidney Pills and all her Troubles Vanished Speedily and Completely.

EEL CREEK, Cumberland Co., N. S., Jan. 27.—Suffering from Female Kidney and Heart Trouble, so run down, nervous and depressed that all the brightness had gone out of her life, and never expecting to be a healthy woman again, Mrs. J. W. Leadbetter of this place tried Dodd's Kidney Pills, and is once more in the best of health. Her simple statement is the best evidence that no case of Kidney Disease is so bad that Dodd's Kidney Pills will not cure it.

"I was treated by five doctors," Mrs. Leadbetter states. "Four of them did me no good. The fifth operated on me and that gave me relief for a time. I had Female Kidney and Heart trouble. I was so nervous and run down that my friends did not think I would ever get better."

"An advertisement led me to use Dodd's Kidney Pills and I found in them a cure for all my troubles. I cannot praise Dodd's Kidney Pills too highly."

Female Troubles and Heart Disease are caused by Kidney Disease. The natural way to cure them is to cure the Kidneys by using Dodd's Kidney Pills.

SYNOPSIS OF CANADIAN NORTHWEST LAND REGULATIONS.

ANY person who is the sole head of a family, or any male over 18 years old, may homestead a quarter section of available Dominion land in Manitoba, Saskatchewan or Alberta.

The applicant must appear in person at the Dominion Land Agency or Sub-Agency for the District. Entry by proxy may be made at any agency on certain conditions, by father, mother, son, daughter, brother or sister of intending homesteader.

Duties—Six months' residence upon and cultivation of the land in each of three years. A homesteader may live within nine miles of his homestead on a farm of at least 80 acres, solely owned and occupied by him by his father, mother, son, daughter, brother or sister.

In certain districts a homesteader in good standing may pre-empt a quarter-section alongside his homestead. Price $300 per acre. Duties—Must reside upon the homestead or pre-empt six months in each of six years from date of homestead entry (including the time required to earn homestead patent), and cultivate 50 acres extra.

A homesteader who has exhausted his homestead right, and cannot obtain a pre-emption may enter for a purchased homestead in certain districts, price $300 per acre. Duties—Must reside six months in each of three years, cultivate a fifty acres and erect a house worth $300.00.

LIGHTWARD.

When the dark days seem to borrow
All the mists that cloud the air,
And the heart surcharged with sorrow
Floods all life with fretful care;
Then there comes a heartening whisper
That the sun shines everywhere,
That God's answer is far swifter
Than wing-borne cry of prayer.

And the soul is lifted higher,
By that Spirit, wind-of-fire,
In whose light the righteous shine;
While the heart with love's desire
Doth lift God's great design;
Serving Christ, who doth inspire
With life's pentecostal wine.

Then the light of heaven leadeeth,
Shining from the face of Christ;
He who promiseth and pleadeeth,
Strengthening with grace unpriestly,
Gift of power both full and free,
Love that ever hath sufficed;
Faith's clear eye at last doth see
Christ is all and all is Christ.

—Archdeacon Armitage of Halifax in The Record.

MOUNTSTEPHEN'S CAREER.

Canadian Nobleman's Life Has Been Full of Stirring Episodes.

The early career of Lord Mountstephen will interest Canadian readers. It was the odd career of a draper's assistant becoming a peer of the realm and a millionaire. What over the odds, they have been surmounted by Lord Mountstephen, who has entered upon his eighty-fourth year. The first Colonial Peer, his father was a journeyman carpenter in the little Banffshire town of Dufftown. It was there that the future baron was born, and in the small parish school he was educated. As a lad he herded cattle in his native glen, going after a time to serve an apprenticeship in an Aberdeen draper's shop. From Aberdeen to Glasgow was but a natural step, and from Glasgow farther "South" a still more natural step for an ambitious young Scot. In London he found employment in a big city warehouse which did business with the colonies. One day a customer from Montreal looked in, and the smart young Scot was deputed to wait on him. The purchasing finished, the assistant made out an order, and signed it in the usual way.

The man from Montreal, noticing the signature, became suspicious, and proceeded to ask a few questions. The upshot of it all was that in the salesman from Banffshire the colonial found a cousin. An invitation to Canada followed, and in very few months George Stephen became his cousin's partner in the French business. From that moment success followed him. Abundantly gifted with racial gift, he rose in time to be president of the Bank of Montreal, and head of the Canadian Pacific Railway. It was in connection with the latter that Lord Mountstephen's best work was done with Canada, and it was for this that he received, first the Baronetcy, and later his Peerage. True to the land that gave him fortune, he took his title from the great mountain—named after himself—which looks down upon the railway it winds its way through the Rockies.

Lord Mountstephen has inherited all the quiet humor of his race. He tells one capital story against himself. He went into the French district surrounding Quebec one day. After he left, two worthies fell to discussing him. "Mountstephen," said one, "is a very fine man."

"Yes," assented the other. "Big man" "Big man in Montreal," said the other. "Oh! Very big man in Montreal," very big man in Montreal," "Yes," Then came the final question. "What is he—butecher or hotelkeeper?"

Popular Bibles.

When Inspector MacDonald, of Calgary, was a plain policeman in the Northwest Mounted Police, and seeking a chance for promotion, he noticed one day, on a Canadian Pacific train, a traveler appearing to bite a Bible, highly toiled in gold. On closer investigation he discovered that he was mistaken—the man was drinking from it—not words of wisdom, but something of a liquid nature. The drinker, looking up, tried guiltily to hide—not the Truth, but what resembled it. MacDonald's curiosity was produced, as fine an imitation as could be desired and containing a very good brand of imitation whisky, the sale of which in the then Territories was without the pale.

The source of publication was sought and one hundred and fifty bibles were found in the care of the news agent, which MacDonald took out of circulation.

When it became quite safe and legal to sell the real liquor in the Territories, the old-timers longed for the old order of things, when they used to get whisky with some fire to it.

Training Their Senses.

Toronto has made a beginning in the special education of children described as "mentally defective." A class has been formed, under the conduct of Miss Carruthers, of children whose minds are so undeveloped as to make them unable to follow the regular school course. As much individual attention as possible is given and the method consists mainly in training the five senses—a method which has worked wonders in those "health centres" of London, which Miss McMillan is lecturing on at present.

Hydro For Short.

At one of the meetings held in London in the interests of the new Hydro-Electric scheme, a good story in Hon. Adam Beck was told. It was said that Mr. Beck was travelling through the country, and, being thirsty, entered a farm house to get a drink, when he heard the farmer's wife address her young son. "Eddie, be quick, the water immediately interested in the name and asked how he came by it. "Oh," said the woman, "he was christened Adam Beck," but we call him 'Hydro' for short."
