SPORTS.—The students are to have a "field day" this afternoon when all kinds of sports will be participated in. A number of prizes will be given and the competition, which is open to the students and town boys, is expected to be a lively one. Those who can do so should attend and witness the sports.

Every Peter Blinde at the Wolfville Book Store.

HYPERICAL.—The residence of A. H. Johnson, Esq., was the scene of a happy event on Monday, when Miss Church and Mr. Elderton were united in the bonds of marriage. They left in the evening train for Boston, where they will reside for the present, followed by many good wishes.

Men's Undressed Shirts only 50 cts, at BURGESS WYVERN'S.

ON THE MOVE.—Miss S. A. Hamilton has removed her millinery store to the shop recently occupied by Mr. O. D. Harris which has been nicely painted and now presents a nice appearance. Miss Hamilton has her goods very tastefully arranged and is doing a good business.—Mr. F. J. Porter has removed to the store vacated by Miss Hamilton. His increasing business demands more room.

Best Line, $1.50 per Cask. R. PRAT.

DR. JUDSON.—The Acadia Athenaeum Society have secured a lecture from Dr. Edward Judson, of New York, son of the famous Adoniram Judson, which is to be given in College Hall on the evening of the 23d, subject, "The Church and the People." We understand the lecture will probably be free and will no doubt be largely attended.—Dr. Judson is known as a fine speaker and we have no hesitation in predicting a first-class lecture.

Wine Fencing, plain and barbed, and Posts at WALKER BROWN'S.

RECENT.—Our readers in Wolfville and vicinity will be pleased to learn that Miss Brown and Wallace intend giving another of their very interesting recitals in College Hall this evening. On this occasion they will be assisted by Miss Vaughn as violinist and Miss Besse Vaughan as accompanist. The programme which we have had the privilege of inspecting is a good one and we can assure all who attend a rich treat. We hope to see the hall well filled.

CORRESPONDENCE.

To the Editors of the ACADIAN: DEAR EDITOR,—In a "certain mill owner's" reply to "Fair Play's" letter in your issue of the 3d he does give himself away very badly indeed. It is evident the sawdust law is a delusion or he has a special permit to do about as he likes. He acknowledges having an understanding with the commissioners to wheel out some of the sawdust; bah, what a statement to make to the public, why not let it all go into the river at once as it eventually does? No wonder he does not want the faithful fellows turned out; it might not be as healthy for him if new ones were appointed. His pathos would do credit to a higher calling than a common wood butcher, while his would be sarcastic blather is really amusing. I am sure all who know him will agree that it fits his own case most completely not omitting the "gregarious ass." By some of his statements he leaves himself open to a fearful raking but it is not fair play to hit a man when he is down.

FAIR PLAY.

Early Closing. We, the undersigned merchants, doing business in the Town of Kentville, do hereby severally agree, we will close up our places of business every Monday, Wednesday and Friday at six o'clock p. m., sharp, commencing Monday, May 15th, 1889. We do so in the full belief that it is an act of justice we owe to ourselves and our clerks, and that it will not be detrimental to business, and desire that this agreement may be inserted for one month in the Western Chronicle, New Star and ACADIAN that the public may have due notice thereof.

J. W. RYAN, W. J. HIGGS, H. S. DODGE, MISS B. RATHBONE, A. E. CALVIN, J. F. NEARY, R. W. EATON, RUFUS PORTER, J. M. ARNOLD.

Special Announcement. We have made arrangements with Dr. B. J. Kendall Co., publishers of "A Treatise on the Horse and his Diseases" which will enable all our subscribers to obtain a copy of that valuable work free by sending their address (enclosing a two-cent stamp for mailing same) to Dr. B. J. KENDALL CO., ESCORTMENT FALLS, VT. This book is now recognized as standard authority upon all diseases of the horse, as its phenomenal sale attests, over four million copies having been sold in the past ten years, a sale never before reached by any publication in the same period of time. We feel confident that our patrons will appreciate the work, and be glad to avail themselves of this opportunity of obtaining a valuable book.

It is necessary that you mention this paper in sending for the "Treatise." This offer will remain open for only a short time.

DEED ABROAD.—In another column will be found notice of the death of T. Ritchie Neary, formerly of Greenwich, which occurred at Framingham, Mass., May 2d. The news of his death comes to us from Rev. Franklin Hutchinson, pastor of the Baptist church at that place, who writes: "Mr. Neary united with the Baptist church in this place a year ago last December and ever since has lived a consistent, faithful, christian life. He was most highly esteemed by all who knew him and will be greatly missed from our church and town." The deceased was a son of Mr. Enoch Neary, of Greenwich, and has been in Framingham about six years. A copy of the Tribune of that town speaks very highly of him.
