

WILL SUBMIT THE BY-LAW.

Dundas Council Passes on High School Debenture Matter.

Citizens' Committee Will Provide a Small Skating Rink.

Other Business at December Meeting Last Evening.

Dundas, Dec. 3.—The regular meeting of the Town Council was held last evening, there being present Mayor Moss, Reeve Lawson, and Councillors Kerr, Lawason, Mount and Lunn.

After passing a large batch of accounts, some time was taken up with a long letter from James Clark, complaining of cars being allowed to stand in front of his house in the west end to accommodate Woodhouse's wood yard, and giving vent to many other grievances at the hands of the town that he was obliged to endure. The letter was referred to the Board of Works.

W. H. Moss, Secretary of the Board of Education, went asking the Council either to provide $25,000 for a new High School building or to submit a by-law to raise the amount by debenture. The Council chose the latter course, and gave a by-law its two readings.

S. H. Kent, City Clerk of Hamilton, informed the Council, in reply to its application for water from the city water works, that as soon as the two pumps were installed the application would be considered.

Chief W. S. reported that during November fourteen street lights had been out. The report was received, and the Clerk ordered to deduct $3.80 from the Electric Light's account for the month. John Kent, secretary of the Citizens' Committee, reported that he had been charged for a full year for the two additional tables he had placed in his pool room, whereas he should have been charged for eight months only, as the license year would expire in that time. No action taken.

A communication from Good, Shipley, Munro & Co., and another from Engineer Stanger, re some unsatisfactory condition of the gas engine installed by the former, at the reservoir, were read, and referred to the fire and water committee.

The special committee re Jones Bros. Co.'s request for aid in building a bridge over the creek at the upper end of Dundas street, recommended that $1,000 be granted for the purpose, on condition that the bridge be so constructed as to accommodate pedestrian and vehicular traffic, and to be kept in repair by the company, excepting that portion used for vehicular and pedestrian purposes. The report was adopted.

The Citizens' Committee asked for permission to flood a small spot with town water, in the town park, to provide a small skating rink for town children. The permission was granted.

Jos. Bowman & Co. wrote that they proposed some permanent changes in their lumber yard, and if the town wished a strip of the same for a street, they had long been talking of action should now be taken, as after the proposed changes it would be impossible to change the boundaries of the yard. Referred to Board of Works to ascertain cost of opening up the street as suggested.

A by-law was passed authorizing a special rate of 12.50 mills on properties along streets to be watered next season, raising thereby $576 for the purpose.

Another by-law, fixing polling places and appointing deputy returning officers as follows, was passed: Mountain Ward, Collins, knitting machine shop, E. J. Cummings, D. R. O.; Small Ward, Town Hall, James Reynolds, D. R. O.; Foundry Ward, W. F. Martin's shoe shop, Joseph Hourigan, D. R. O.; Valley Ward, Wm. Mitson's store, Joseph W. Boyle, D. R. O. Council adjourned at 11 o'clock.

Mr. and Mrs. Homer Ford, of Berlin, are visiting friends in town.

James Kraggy is paying his parental home a visit.

In response to his appeal the altar and front seats were specially filled with those seeking this blessing. The young men and young women of the church predominating. A number of seekers upon were the men present, who presented about 30 of them returned to the church room afterwards and prayed and talked together till midnight. A great work is going on.

LITERARY WORK.

Centenary Society Maps Out Good Season's Work.

Centenary Literary Society held its regular meeting last evening with a large attendance of members. The discussion of the fifth act of Macbeth was led by Mr. Westcott, and a delightfully interesting paper on "The British House of Parliament" was read by Rev. H. G. Livingston. The programme for the season's work is complete, and evenings with Tennyson, Bryant, Emerson, Kipling, Poe, Holmes, the Canadian poets, lectures on Egypt, Italy, music, the Lady of the Lake, and study of Julius Caesar, have been arranged. The members are looking forward to a season of pleasure and profit.

MISS DONEGAN.

Grace, Beauty and Wonder on the Little Rollers.

The attendance at the Alexandra was very large last evening to witness Miss Nellie Donegan, the world-renowned skatist, open a three-nights' engagement. She is certainly all that the title she holds implies, and is without a doubt the best that has been seen here. She has the combined forces of agility and grace, together with a pleasing manner, and wins the attention of her audience the moment she enters the skating floor. Her costumes are elegant and rich. Her skating is very artistic, and embraces every known fancy movement. She waltzes, two-steps, does the spread eagle, and also side-steps. She also has a whirling step that caught the fancy of the crowd. Miss Donegan has a change of programme for each performance, and also a change of costume. It is well worth a trip to the Alexandra to see this dainty artist perform on the little rollers. Miss Donegan will leave here on Thursday to perform before President Roosevelt and the members of his Cabinet for one engagement.

THE UNION JACK

Draped With the Stars and Stripes in New York Church.

A Hamiltonian attended a Thanksgiving service last Sunday in Calvary Baptist Church, New York, and heard the pastor, Rev. Dr. McArthur, preach. The church was very appropriately decorated with flags of the different nations. But what was surprising as well as pleasing to the Hamilton worshipper was to see the Union Jack draped with the Stars and Stripes at the back of the pulpit. It was supposed that as Dr. McArthur is a Scotchman, the British flag got the place of honor in compliment to him. It may be mentioned that Mr. E. T. Martin, formerly of this city, is a member of Calvary Church. The choir is one of the best in New York city.

A NARROW ESCAPE.

Mr. Isaac Weylie's Horse Killed on Railway Crossing.

Caledonia, Ont., Dec. 3.—Isaac Weylie, of Seneca Township, was seriously injured, his horse killed and buggy destroyed while crossing the G. T. R. tracks here. He was given the signal to cross by the brakeman of a cut-freight train, the engine of which was taking water. He succeeded in getting over the first two tracks, but, upon reaching the third, the train backed down and stopped his progress. In the meantime, the engine which had been taking water began to come toward him. His horse became unmanageable between the two moving trains, and the light engine struck the horse and buggy. Mr. Weylie saved his life by jumping.

Mr. Weylie's hosts of friends here and around Caledonia will be glad that he escaped. He was president of the Caledonia Fair Association a few years ago.

COPPER WIRE CASE AGAIN.

Another Arrest Made and $2000 Fixed as Bail.

Sammy Mulholland and D. Wyrz Go to Central.

Dundas Man Found Guilty of Theft This Morning.

The celebrated copper wire stealing case for which five men were arrested by Constables Brannon and Barrett, four of whom were committed for trial, has not been finished yet. This morning Detective Bleakley and Constable Sayers and Robson arrested John Nevilles, 79 Napier street, on a similar charge. They accuse him of being one of the men who was seen out at the rendezvous, but was not caught. Acting Crown Attorney Martin obtained a remand till Friday for the defendant, and J. L. Connell, acting for Nevilles, obtained bail in the sum of $2,000.

Joseph Vaughan, Dundas, pleaded not guilty, through J. L. Connell, to a charge of stealing a pair of glasses from the offices of R. & J. Poag, Westinghouse avenue, yesterday.

The young lady bookkeeper said that Vaughan had gone into the office and asked to be allowed to warm himself, but had not been given permission. He stayed in the office some time, and the bookkeeper kept her eye on him, with the result that she saw him take a pair of glasses from the desk where they were lying. She went into the office and told him to put them back, but he ran out of the office and she started after him. Two men, A. Andrews and E. Robbins, followed and caught him, and he was taken to the office, where the bookkeeper saw the glasses, but claimed that they were his. The two men mentioned corroborated the bookkeeper's testimony as to the chase and capture. Constable McKay said the man had been handed over to him and he had lodged him in the lock-up.

Mr. Connell called Vaughan, who said that he had gone into the place to get warm and had laid his gloves down on the table. When he was going out he picked them up, and, seeing what he thought to be his glasses on the table, he put them in his pocket. When accused of the theft he had foolishly run away. He said he was a traveller for the Crown Canister Co., of Dundas, and was married, and had a wife and three children, one of whom was sick with spinal meningitis. The Magistrate said he had no doubt of Vaughan's guilt, and accordingly found him guilty. He was remanded to-morrow, to be allowed to get references as to his character.

George Cook, King street east, and Thomas Street, 55 Liberty street, were charged with being drunk and disorderly. The former was fined $3 while the latter was charged $2.

Lillie was charged with fraud. J. L. Connell appeared for him, and agreed to a remand till to-morrow, which was granted. Bail was fixed in the sum of $100. The fraud alleged is that the defendant obtained $2 from each of six foreigners, as a fee for getting them a job on the railway lines around the city. The job was not forthcoming, and the money was not returned, so that they had Lillie arrested.

Isaac Levy, 75 Ray street south, was charged by Mamie of the same name, with assault, but Mamie forgave him, and the case was allowed to drop.

E. H. Dickinson was sued by A. Hill for $100, but the case was dismissed, as the man has not returned until the regular pay day before he sues.

Sammy Mulholland and Dennis Wyrz, found guilty of stealing fags and lead from M. Cohen, were before Magistrate this morning for sentence. He sent them both to Central Prison for six months. Both the recipients of the hand-out smiled and seemed to think they got off easily.

Any Weakness in Your Back?

Sometimes you experience pain and weakness without much suffering. Later on the pain will surely come. The trouble can be stopped now by rubbing on Nerviline—rub it in deeply over the spine, and then put on a Nerviline Plaster. In these remedies you will find wonderful and quick relief. They will spare you from an attack of Lumbago, which is the outcome of neglected pain in the back or side. For all muscular pains, strains and weakness, Polson's Nerviline and Nerviline Plasters have no equal. Refuse substitutes.

Grave of the Tichborne Claimant.

While the subject of claimants to titles and the estates that go with them is in the air it is interesting to note that in Paddington Cemetery, Willesden lane, lies the body of Arthur Orton, who claimed to be Sir Roger Tichborne.

On his coffin he was described as such, but his miniature tombstone bears merely one line, and that reads "No. 1472." Orton, after serving many years' imprisonment, appeared on "the balls," and died in Star street, off Edgware road—London Globe.

"TO DEATH!"

Shrieks Murderer When Judge Completes Sentence.

New York, Dec. 3.—Nicola Zarzona, sentenced to-day when Judge Dike, in the County Court, Brooklyn, sentenced him to death.

"To death! To death!" screamed Zarzona as sentence was pronounced; then he fell senseless. Relatives in the rear of the courtroom rushed forward repeating the cry, "To death! To death!" Their excitement was intense.

Court officers rushed the relatives out of the room and Zarzona was carried into the pen, later being transferred to Raymond street jail. He was sent to Sing Sing to-night to die in the electric chair during the week beginning January 13th next.

Zarzona shot and killed Frank Ferrillo, June 17th last, following a dispute. The men were in partnership in a small business, and a difference of 17 cents in the adjustment of their daily accounts resulted in the murder.

"There are too many repetitions of shooting and stabbing cases among your countrymen," said Judge Dike in passing sentence, "and I propose to show no mercy. You committed deliberate murder over a trifle."

REVIVAL IN EAST.

Another Large Crowd at Barton Street Church.

The revival in progress in East Hamilton is steadily increasing in interest. Last night the meeting was held in Barton Street Methodist Church, the attendance being too large to be accommodated in the Y. M. C. A. building. After a stirring appeal from Evangelist Turk the personal workers were soon busy throughout the large audience, inviting the unconverted to go forward to the front of the church, and soon the front seats were well filled and the workers had taken charge of a large number of enquirers. Some bright, smart boys of 12 and 14 years and on up to mature manhood and from young girls in their teens to mothers of advanced age were among these. The testimony at the conclusion of the meeting were given from all ages as to the power of Christ to save. The workers carried on a prayer meeting after the general service was concluded, lasting until 11 o'clock. Much prayer is being offered for the meeting arranged for Wesley Church next Saturday afternoon. It is apparently the desire of all the workers that it should be a real evangelistic meeting, and an effort to gather in the unsaved rather than any display as to what has already been accomplished and adjusted.

Prayers can be heard the request that the doors of the up-town churches may be opened and the hearts of the people warmed to this revival movement. The effort is "Hamilton for Christ." Madame Egbert is singing at all the special services.

Y. M. C. A. BOARD.

Questions of Finance Were Discussed Last Night.

There was a special meeting of the Y. M. C. A. Board of Directors last evening, with a large attendance. Several special subjects were discussed. The financing of the association, the new work in Hamilton having largely increased the budget this year, was taken up. The lists of subscribers held by the directors were discussed and adjusted, and the directors were urged to gather in all regular subscriptions at once. A number of names of prominent citizens who are not at present subscribing to the association were also placed on the lists, and will be called on. The proposition to enlarge, in some way, the accommodation for the rapid increasing numbers, particularly for the boys' department, was considered at some length, each proposition seeming to have disadvantages as well as advantages. The desire seemed to be to make some temporary improvement to relieve the congested condition that is hindering the work at present, and at the same time to make the larger scheme for an entire new building. Advice from some experts on building funds was to the fact that before the large canvass for building funds is undertaken there should be one leading conditional subscription amounting to at least 10 per cent. of the whole amount required. As soon as this is forthcoming, a larger scheme will be undertaken.

Both the recipients of the hand-out smiled and seemed to think they got off easily.

Another Big Day.

Yesterday proved another big day at the Stanley Mills & Co.'s store and coming, as it did right after the extraordinary business of last Saturday leads to the belief that the store will be one of the greatest business months in their history. The immense stocks and the excellent store service that Stanley Mills & Co. are giving their customers are proving a magnet for the firm's forecast that this December will be one of the greatest business months in their history. The immense stocks and the excellent store service that Stanley Mills & Co. are giving their customers are proving a magnet for the firm's forecast that this December will be one of the greatest business months in their history.

Shoppers are beginning to realize that early morning buying has many advantages over the afternoon hours, and are consequently getting out in greater numbers than ever early in the day. Each night Stanley Mills & Co. publish in their advertisement a list of early morning specials for the following day and the savings on these easily compensate for the little extra exertion of getting down town early.

Something New, Something Novel.

A special social session for skating in couples will be held at the Alexandra Ballroom, on Monday evening, Dec. 9th. At this session there will be a programme of music consisting of eighteen skating numbers. The programme will begin at 8.15. The admission for this social session will be 60 cents per couple. Extra tickets, 35 cents. However, it is not required that all attend in couples, but patrons may go singly or in parties as at other times. Engagements for partners will be necessary to get on the skating floor for the programme numbers.

MRS. BRADLEY NOT GUILTY.

Her Ladyship Received an Ovation as She Left the Court.

Will Now Join Her Sister at Goldfield, Nevada.

Now Who Shot Senator Brown if She Didn't?

Washington, Dec. 3.—The jury in the case of Mrs. Annie M. Bradley, charged with the murder of former United States Senator Arthur Brown, of Utah, at a local hotel here on Dec. 8th last, this morning brought in a verdict of not guilty. The jury reached the court room at 10.08. When the court asked them if they had reached a verdict, the foreman answered:

"We have."

"What is your verdict, gentlemen?"

"Not guilty."

A demonstration of applause followed the announcement of the verdict.

Mrs. Bradley was immediately discharged from custody, and left the Court House in an automobile, following an ovation. She will leave in a few days to join her sister at Goldfield, Nevada.

Before the Verdict.

Washington, Dec. 2.—At twenty minutes past 4 o'clock this afternoon twelve men in whose hands the fate of Mrs. Annie Bradley rests, retired to the jury chamber, and the prisoner, trembling with emotion, with tears streaming down her white cheeks, was led through the crowded court room to the detention room below to await the verdict.

Mrs. Bradley was more cheerful this evening than at any time during the trial. At the home where her children are stopping they had prepared a party for her, and remained up until word came that she would return to the jail for the night.

A deathlike stillness pervaded the room as the jurors filed slowly out, and there was not a person in that great crowd that did not feel the impressiveness and solemnity of the moment. Craning their necks to get a glimpse of the woman about to receive her verdict, dozens of people stood in the corridors and looked through the windows facing the court room as the women passed. A noted criminal has been tried and where Guiteau received the sentence that sent him to the gallows for killing a President, Mrs. Bonnyne and Mrs. May, both accused of murder, were tried in the picturesque old court house, but never in its history has there been so strong a demand for a prisoner, the bailiff said to-day, as it has been by the slender, pathetic little woman in the mourning garb, who for days past has dragged herself wearily into the court, fighting for her life, indicted for murder.

The Salt Lake Judge, Orlando Powers, who has defended the woman so ably and without thought of remuneration for his services, gave a final word in her defence to-day when he summed up. A more impressive, a more eloquent and forceful plea has seldom been made for a human life. Tears streamed from the eyes of dozens of women present, and strong men were visibly affected. Combining with great art, the legal aspect of the case, with the more sentimental elements, he made a picture of a devoted, outraged womanhood, driven to madness through the cruelty of the man she loved and trusted that will not soon be affixed from that memorable address.

Answering Judge Powers' passionate appeal to the men of the jury as fathers, brothers, sons, to have pity on the woman who had fallen through love, the District Attorney in a voice cold and relentless added as he closed his arguments of some two and a half hours in length: "You have heard the tribute of the counsel for the woman. Does it not strike you as strange that the mention of the mother, wife, sister or daughter who live respectable, decent lives, discharging the duties of womanhood in their homes and entitled to all the respect and admiration that men can give them, simply receive what may be called a tacit, negative respect and are allowed to live their lives in most commonplace manner, but the woman who abandons the path of virtue, pollutes her home, attacks the family ties and wages war upon the whole social order, disgraces womanhood, wifehood, motherhood and crowns her infamy with the greatest of crimes, is held up to your eyes as a heroine, one entitled not only to respect, but actually to admiration, and you are asked to acquit this woman because you respect good women?"
