And yet, notwithstand-ing, the parting hear brings its bitterness, my heart is very fall, when I come to think upon the past. It's not for His minister who were the crown of therms to com-plain that his path has not uniformly been strewed with roses; but if under circumstances, occasionally, of much tribulation, I have laboured, as I trust, to preach Christ faithfully among yoa. If indeed, notwithstanding my many and grievious short comings (more numerous doubtless, than the days of my residence here) I have ever been actuated by a deep anxiety for year welfare. If indeed (and I feel you recognize the fact), your souls have been very dear to me in the Lord. I would wink to bequeach these my slender claims upon your gratitude to the person succeeding me in this my office and ministry, who will enter on his daties as, I trust, under brighter asspices.

office and ministry, who will enter on his daties as, I trust, under brighter assignes. Receive him in the spirit that you part with me. That encou-raged by your kindness, liberality, and Christian consistency, he may do his work with joy and not with grief. It is written, that this will be profitable to your sonls. I request your prayers, my friends, in bidding you farewell; and be fully assured, that wherever my lot shall be cast, I shall never forget you in my supplications at the Throne of Grace.

ADDRESS FROM THE SONS OF TEMPERANCE.

Submitted in Love, Purity and Fidelity. W. SANDERSON, JAMES EASTON, RICHD. M. GIDLEY. Division Room, 23d June, 1852.

[REPLY.] To the Members of the Diamond of the Desert Division No. 9 Sons of Temperance, Sc. Sc.

GENTLEMEN,-

Allow me to tender you the expression of my grateful sen-time.ts for the kind, but too flattering address you have been pleased to present to me. It was natural, indeed, and truly creditable to your feelings.

It was natural, indeed, and truly creditable to your feelings, that you should wish to take leave of me in a friendly manner. Excuse me if my answer should appear two brief for courtesy. I am wearied in body and weak in spirit at the moment-disheartened, I may say, to a greater extent than I had antici-pated, at the moment of parting from "Old familiat faces." Accept of my best wish s for the stability and extension of your hody. I have certainly noticed its operation for good in supporters,—I have always expressed myselt plainly on this subject, and perhaps from this very cause, we have been the better friends; not one of your members would more deeply have deplored its diaruption.
